One last time, Turner proves she's 'Simply the Best'

By Jacqueline Cutler

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

Tina Turner is the goddess of rock 'n' roll. While many jockey for the men's top spot, what other woman comes close? Her voice, her rhythm and her way with a song have probably made more folks jump out of chairs than any tent revivalist asking people to throw down their crutches.

It's that throaty, sultry voice that comes from somewhere down near her stiletto heels and ends miles above the improbable mop of hair. It's a persona that catapulted her from Nutbush, Tenn., to international stardom. Turner is the world's most successful female rock 'n' roll artist — ever. She's sold more than 60 million records, and that's since launching her solo career in 1983.

Wednesday, Dec. 6, Turner will take her final bow as a rock 'n' roll icon at a concert in Anaheim, Calif. On Monday, Dec. 4, CBS airs a concert show from London's Wembley Stadium, "Tina Turner One Last Time Live!" Among the hits she'll perform: "Proud Mary," "Private Dancer," "What's Love Got to Do With It" and "Simply the Best."

Turner, however, is not quitting — only leaving huge rock 'n' roll productions. During this tour, which began March 6, there have been 116 performances before some 3 million fans. That's an awful lot of shimmying in sequined microminis and heels that would cripple the average 17-year-old model. It's even more impressive when you consider that Turner is 61.

"I have always had an idea I would like to be off for five years," Turner says. "Just to wait and see. I have finally gotten to that stage, and I will take off as long as I want. This is Phase 3 in my life, and I will reinvent myself in some way. It will be something I want to do. My work, for as long as I have been out there, has been a duty for the record company and my musicians, and how I make my money."

"I wanted to be in rock 'n' roll," she continues. "I didn't want to stand in a beautiful dress and sing. I wanted action. And I am a little bit of a tomboy. I loved every moment of it. That part of my desire is finished, and I conquered it."

Turner's life is a study in conquering the odds. She was born Anna Mae Bullock to a black mom and American Indian dad who split when she was young. Her grandmother raised her in a one-store town that Turner later immortalized in song. At 16, the skinny girl who could ring the last note out of hymns in church found herself in St. Louis with its thriving blues scene. Ike Turner soon discovered her and realized the star that she could become.

That part of her life has been well documented in her autobiography, "I, Tina: My Life Story," and the 1993 movie based on the book, "What's Love Got to Do With It." She married Ike in Mexico, in between the births of her two sons. For years, he beat her. Finally, in 1976, she escaped with only the clothes on her back, 36 cents and a gasoline credit card. In the divorce, she gave him everything. All she wanted was to get out and keep the name with which she had risen to fame.

Initially, Turner played supper clubs. But by 1984, "Private Dancer" catapulted her to the top, where she remained.

Here are some highlights of Kent's 'Life'

By Taylor Michaels

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

Please tell me what you can about beautiful Heather Paige Kent from "That's Life." -Michael Thom, West Palm Beach, Fla.

Her new CBS series may be struggling in the ratings, but Kent has emerged as an actress to watch. The New York native earned a fine arts degree in musical theater and began her career appearing in light opera productions on the West Coast.

A 14-piece band that she organized with a friend used to open for Mel Torme, Dana Carvey, Paula Poundstone and the Manhattan Transfer. Cast as a stand-up comic in the stage musical "Funny Business," she researched her role by performing in comedy clubs.

Her TV credits include co-starring roles in "Jenny" and "Stark Raving Mad" and guest appearances on "Chicago Sons," "Men Behaving Badly," "Early Edition" and several other shows. Kent lives in Newport, Calif., with her husband, plastic surgeon Terry Dubrow.

Whatever happened to "Mysterious Ways"? Will it be back? -Jon and Tiff, Fort Myers, Fla.

It never went away. "Mysterious Ways" airs Tuesdays on Pax TV. NBC, Pax's big sister channel, gave a limited run to the series in late summer to build viewer awareness, after which the show moved as planned to Pax. Unfortunately, a lot of the show's fans didn't follow that move, and they remain under the impression that "Ways" was an NBC show that was canceled.

What was the name of the movie in which Gary Cooper played a Quaker? -Donna Sage, Flint, Mich.

"Friendly Persuasion" (1956).

Did the actor who played Sarah's brother William in "Skylark" play in "Guiding Light" several years ago? -Wilma Coleman, Webb City, Mo.

Yes, James Rebhorn is a soap opera veteran whose roles include Bradley Raines on "Guiding Light" (1984-85). He also has worked on "Texas," "The Doctors" and "As the World Turns."

Sunday's Best Bets

The Tangerine Bear: Home in Time for Christmas

6:30 p.m. on ABC

Not all the misfit toys end up on that fabled island. Tangie (voice of Jonathan Taylor Thomas, "Home Improvement") is a teddy bear whom nobody wants because his smile was sewn on upside down at the toy factory (where's Inspector 12 when we need her?). When nobody buys him — not even from the discount table — he lands in a secondhand store where the sun fades him to an ugly tangerine color. But the other unwanted items teach him that family is where you find it (awwwww). The stellar voice cast of this new animated holiday half-hour also includes Jenna Elfman, Tom Bosley, Howie Mandel, David Hyde Pierce and Marlon Wayans.

Christina Aguilera: My Reflection

7 p.m. on ABC

Rhythm and blues balladeer Brian McKnight and teen-age rapper Lil Bow Wow join Christina Aguilera for an hour of her hits and some seasonal songs. Aguilera sings "Genie in a Bottle," "What a Girl Wants," "Reflection" and "Come On Over (All I Want Is You)" and belts out "Climb Every Mountain" with a multigenerational choir. She teams up with McKnight for "Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas" and with Lil Bow Wow for "Christmas Time." The special was taped at the Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles.

MY REFLECTION

Lucille Ball: Finding Lucy

7 p.m. on PBS

If you love Lucy — and who doesn't? — don't miss this "American Masters Special," an affectionate portrait of the small-screen queen. It has all the expected biographical tidbits, with some delightful rare goodies. One is Desi Arnaz's speech to the "I Love Lucy" studio audience shortly after Ball was caught up in the Red-baiting rumor mill of the 1950s: "(Her hair) is the only thing red about her, and that's not legitimate." There are also home movies of Ball and Arnaz and the celebrated employee picnics at Desilu Studios — which Ball ran like a family to make up for the fracturing of her own family of origin after her father's death.

Movie: Catherine the Great

7 p.m. on A&E

Catherine Zeta-Jones stars as another famous Catherine in this German-made 1995 biopic, which is making its North American debut. Hannes Jaenicke plays Peter, her husband and rival for the Russian throne after the death of his aunt, Empress Elizabeth (Jeanne Moreau). Catherine wins, becoming one of Russia's greatest leaders.

Queen Latifah helps motivate voters

By Lorri Antosz Benson

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Talk host Queen Latifah is movin' on up — in both national prominence and talk show distinction.

Before last month's election, Latifah was asked by President Bill Clinton to join him in a special syndicated radio address. She was in good company, with fellow invitees Will Smith, Jimmy Smits and Sinbad, encouraging African-Americans and Latinos to vote in the presidential election.

This is not the first or last political message Latifah intends to broadcast. Over the past few weeks, she has been using her show as a vehicle to improve race relations.

Breaking ground in the talk genre, the show's producers took a 20-year-old black youth named Jai and asked him to live in the Florida home of a white family for two weeks. They also asked a white 19-year-old named Allison to live with a black family in Fresno, Calif., for the same period of time. Cameras recorded all the interaction. Latifah says, "I was glued to my own show."

Talk the Talk

Called "Trading Places," this race reality project was not a fly-by-night operation. The young visitors were chosen carefully, with a psychologist aiding in the selection process and monitoring what transpired.

Allison was contacted via e-mail by a show producer who used her Internet profile as a criterion. "I thought it was a joke," Allison says. "I called a few times to make sure it was for real."

Allison's parents didn't think it was a joke. "My mom said, 'You're not doing it,' and I didn't tell my dad until a week before I left."

Jai's parents were more open-minded about the experience, although "they had mixed feelings," he says. His brother is the soon-to-be father of a white girlfriend's baby, so Jai's family feared he would "bad-mouth" his brother on the air.

Both young people are glad for the experience, but only Allison believes it changed her for the better. "I am not a racist and never have been," she says. "But I now see people are people, and I'm not going to look at color anymore."

Queen Latifah

She says she was surprised to find that the family lived "just like white people" and that she had expected more differences. "Everything we did together was positive." Even so, Allison admits she couldn't sleep the first week and had difficulty going to the bathroom in a strange house.

Monday's Best Bets

Nestor, the Long-Eared Christmas Donkey

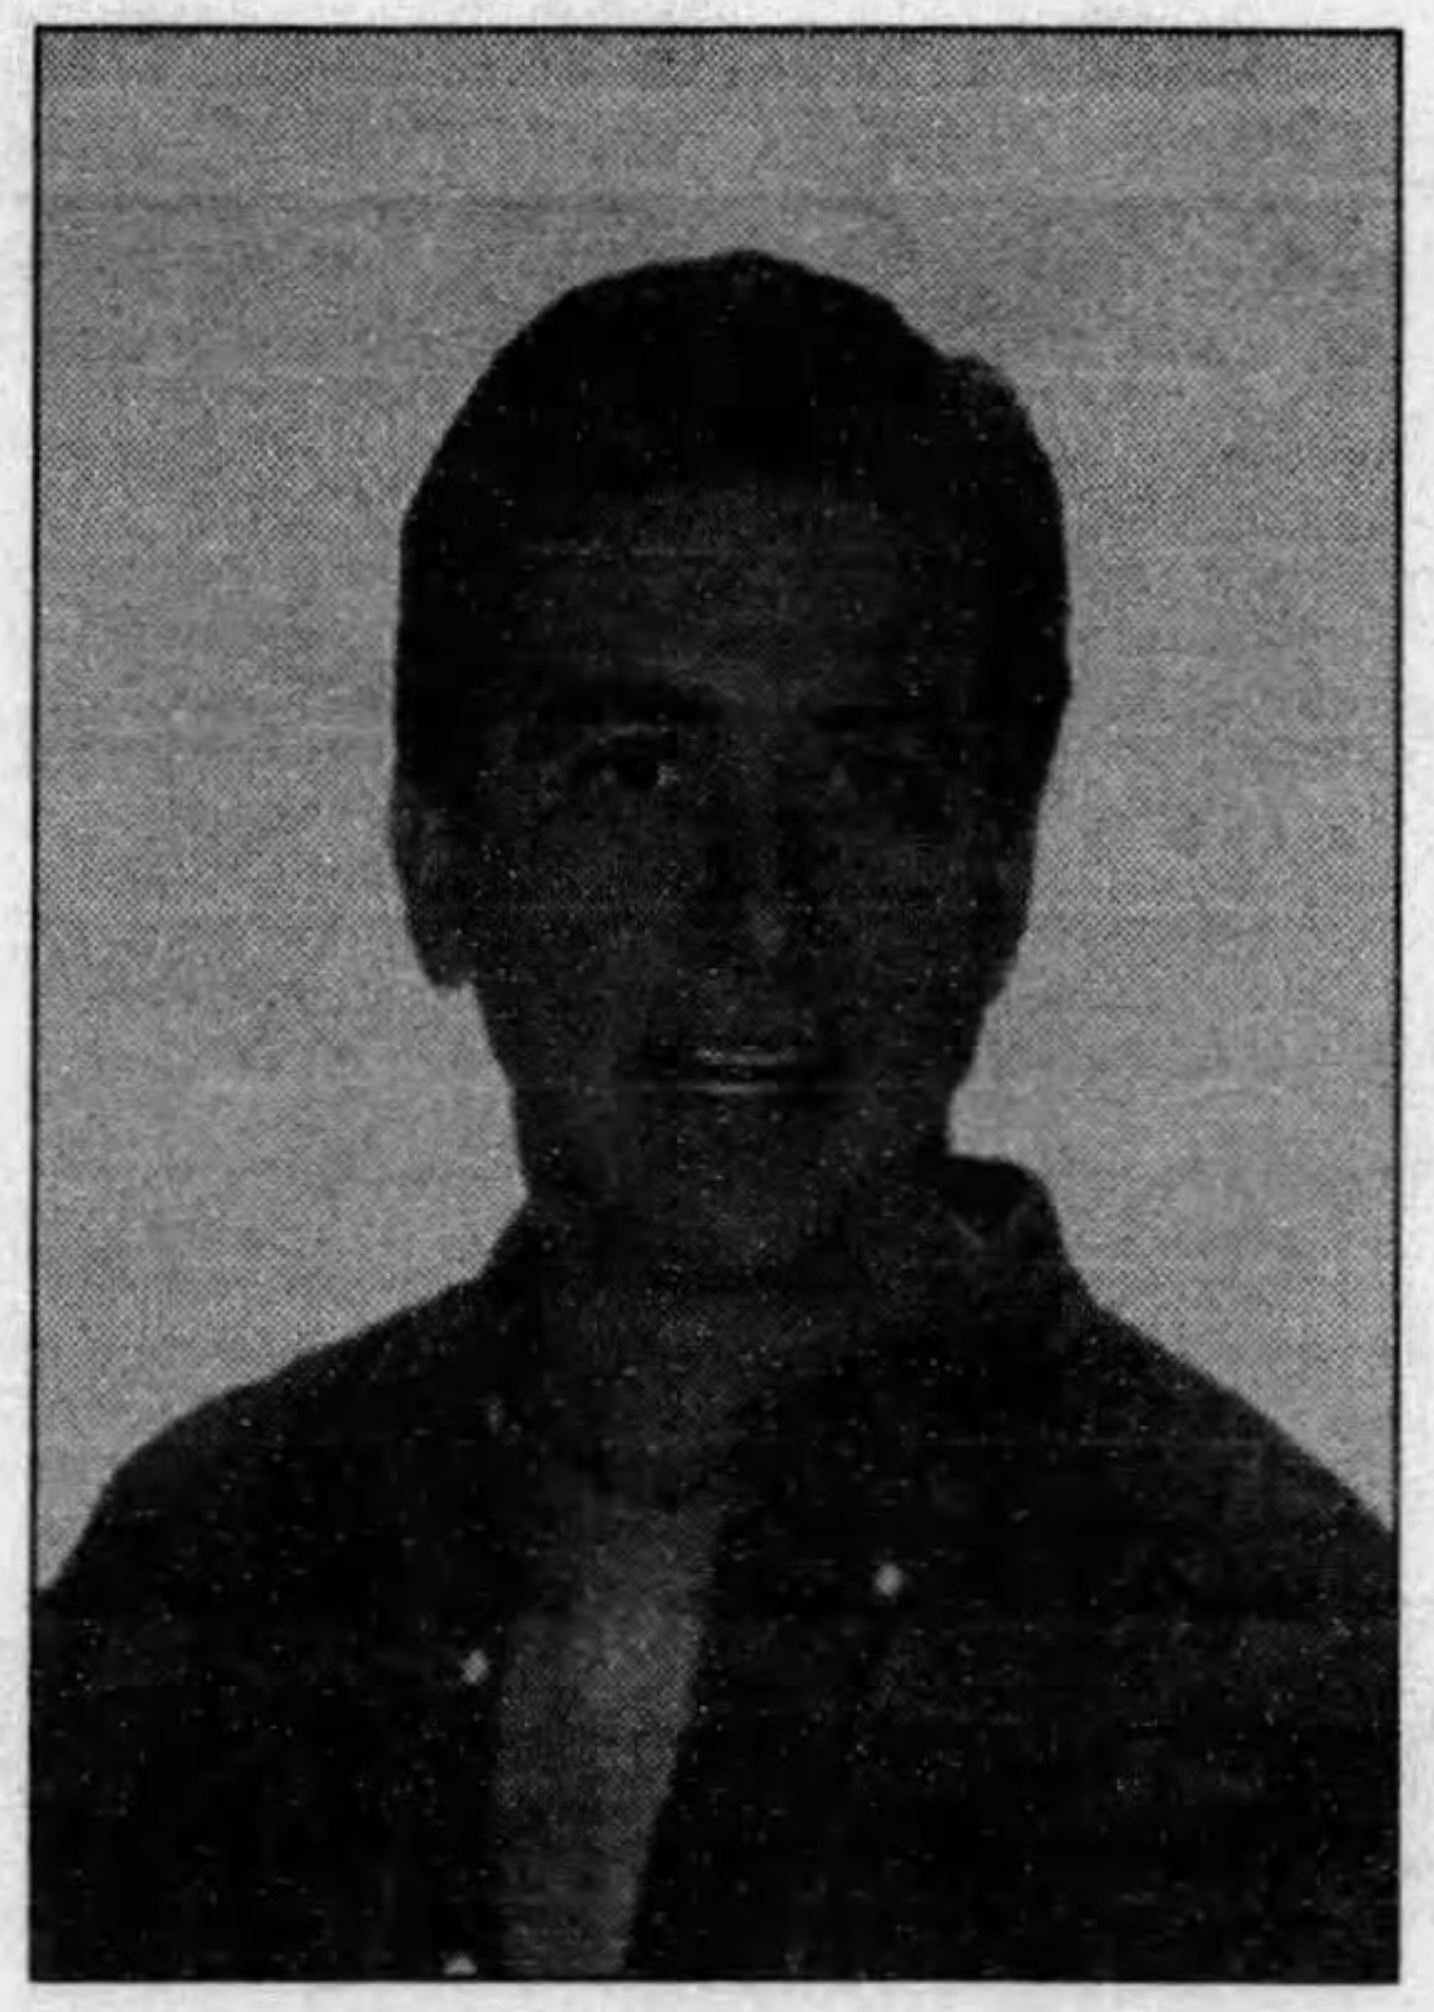
5:30 p.m. on FAM

Nestor is a little bit Dumbo and a little bit Rudolph. Like Disney's famous elephant, the young donkey has oversized ears that only a mother could love. And like the most famous reindeer of all, he saves Christmas, thanks to his most famous oddity. But in this case, the Christmas he saves is the very first one; he's the donkey that the pregnant Mary rides to Bethlehem, and those enormous ears pick up the angels singing and allow him to deliver Mary and Joseph to their destiny. Roger Miller narrates this charming animated holiday special and sings the songs. Brenda Vaccaro and Paul Frees also provide voices.

NFL Football

8 p.m. on ABC

Simply stated, the Kansas City Chiefs can't lose tonight if they have any hope of making the playoffs. Fortunately for them, they play the New England Patriots, who should be ripe for the picking even though the game is in Foxboro, Mass. The Chiefs were sky high after beating the Rams 54-34 and then Seattle to move to 5-3, but then the pass-happy offense led by quarterback Elvis Grbac lost its rhythm and two straight games. Expect a better balance on offense for the Chiefs tonight against the struggling Pats.



Ray Romano
EVERYBODY LOVES RAYMOND

Everybody Loves Raymond

8 p.m. on CBS

Ray (Ray Romano) is mad as heck and he's not going to take it anymore in "Wallpaper." A particularly poorly timed visit by Frank and Marie (Peter Boyle, Doris Roberts) is the catalyst for a string of annoyances that causes him to lash out at his folks, ordering them out of his house for good. Debra (Patricia Heaton) is angry, too, but when the dust clears, she tries to repair the damage. What's really behind Ray's rage? And can this parent-son relationship be saved? Madylin Sweeten also stars.

The Hughleys

8 p.m. on UPN

A certain hit reality show is raked over the coals in "Survivin'." Darryl (D.L. Hughley) fires the contractor whom Yvonne (Elise Neal) hired to work on the kitchen and tries to do the work himself. The results aren't pretty: an explosion and a power outage. The Hughleys are forced to camp in the backyard with Milsap, Dave and Sally (John Henton, Eric Allan Kramer, Marietta DePrima), but the tent isn't big enough for all of them. Someone will have to be voted out. Gervase Peterson of the real "Survivor" guest stars.

Tuesday's Best Bets

Billboard Music Awards

7 p.m. on FOX

Faith Hill, Ricky Martin, Sisqo, Destiny's Child and Creed are among the performers slated to show their stuff at this awards special, which honors the year's biggest artists and songs. The show, airing from Las Vegas, includes special appearances by LL Cool J, Jessica Simpson, Toni Braxton and the band Vertical Horizon.

NBA Basketball

7 p.m. on TBS

The Western Conference, viewed by many an NBA observer to be superior to the East, is on display tonight in doubleheader fashion beginning with the Spurs and Kings in Sacramento. The Spurs one-two punch of Tim Duncan and David Robinson is tough to beat inside, and their matchup with Kings forward Chris Webber will be intriguing to watch. The nightcap is a measuring stick of sorts for the 76ers, who take on the Lakers in L.A. Can Allen Iverson's Eastern Conference team hang with Shaq O'Neal and the NBA champs?

Figure Skating

7 p.m. on USA

USA Network combats the plethora of NBA and college basketball with a time-tested ratings grabber. For the third straight year, the network presents "Improv-Ice," a three-hour presentation of figure skating creativity and spontaneity from Philadelphia. Six male and female skaters, including Tara Lipinski, Oksana Baiul, Todd Eldredge and Elvis Stojko, select a piece of music two hours before airtime and create a routine on their own.

BILLBOARD MUSIC AWARDS

Dharma & Greg

8 p.m. on ABC

Greg and Dharma need to rethink their penchant for helping other people. While their altruism is admirable, it's getting in the way of their relationship with each other. Can they find a balance between improving everyone else's quality of life and having quality time together?

The Fly Papers

9 p.m. on AMC

Flies were just annoying little insects until George Langelaan got hold of them. His short story "The Fly" was a terrifying tale of a scientist who experiments with the teleportation of matter and ends up swapping heads and arms with a housefly. The monster that Langelaan created on paper was soon a hit on the big screen, starting with 1958's "The Fly," which spawned two sequels and a 1986 remake that had its own sequel. This special explores the enduring popularity of the "Fly" franchise through clips from all five films, interviews with some of the stars and peeks behind the scenes to see how the special effects were done.

Wednesday's Best Bets

Martha Stewart's Christmas Dream

7 p.m. on CBS

We always knew Martha Stewart could do it all; if she's dreaming of a white Christmas, darn it, she's going to have one. Ana Gasteyer, the resident Martha mimicker of "Saturday Night Live," guest stars in Stewart's latest holiday special, doing her best impersonation of the gracious-living goddess making actual snow. But seriously, folks, most of the special is devoted to Stewart and her guests doing slightly more realistic variations on the white Christmas theme. Actress Lorraine Bracco concocts an ice-cream snowman; Melissa Joan Hart makes a house of sugar cubes; and ice sculptor Joe O'-Donoghue creates a giant snowflake. Also on hand are Tony Bennett, who sings "White Christmas"; Cyndi Lauper, who performs "Winter Wonderland;" and Santa Claus.

The Drew Carey Show

8 p.m. on ABC

Drew (Drew Carey) tries to score points with his new boss by offering to sing at a fund-raiser for the man's church. But while our hero may be great at some things — brewing beer and trading insults with Mimi (Kathy Kinney) come to mind — singing isn't one of them. Now his friends are in a tough position: How do they break this to him? Ryan Stiles, Christa Miller and Diedrich Bader also star in "Drew Can't Carey a Tune."

THE DREW CAREY SHOW

Movie: One Special Night

8 p.m. on CBS

Moments after their first meeting, two very different people — one recently widowed, the other with an ailing spouse — are trapped together in an empty cabin by a snowstorm. The forced friendship gets off to a chilly start, but things warm up predictably toward a happy ending. Julie Andrews and one of her favorite costars, James Garner ("Victor/Victoria," "The Americanization of Emily"), star in this 1999 drama.

Investigative Reports

9 p.m. on A&E

How does a parole board determine whether a prisoner deserves to finish his sentence on the outside? "Parole Board: Nevada" looks at one such panel as it decides the fates of three inmates convicted of rape, jewel theft and soliciting prostitution while HIV-positive. Focusing on Nevada is appropriate, because parole is a gamble. There's always the chance that once out, a parolee will commit another crime — perhaps even murder.

Thursday's Best Bets

Santa Claus Is Coming to Town

7 p.m. on FAM

A lanky mailman with the voice of Fred Astaire explains where Santa Claus came from in this animated special from 1970, which conveniently sidesteps the whole St. Nicholas part of the story. In this version, the future jolly old elf is a foundling left on the doorstep of the Kringles, a family of toymakers. They name him Kriss, and he grows up with toys in his blood, so to speak. In fact, he'd like nothing more than to give them away to the local youngsters, but mean old Burgermeister Meisterburger will have none of that. Mickey Rooney provides the voice of Kriss Kringle, with Paul Frees as the Burgermeister; Joan Gardner as the future Mrs. Santa; and Keenan Wynn as the Winter Warlock, another bad guy whom Kriss wins over to his side.

NBA Basketball

7 p.m. on TNT

For the New York Knicks, it's games like this one against the San Antonio Spurs where the wisdom of trading Patrick Ewing may haunt them. Minus a big body in the middle (at least until the injured Luc Longley returns), the Knicks send power forward Marcus Camby into the paint, where tonight he'll try to check Tim Duncan or David Robinson. Camby's played well this season, but he gives up a lot of muscle to the Spurs' twin towers, something Ewing could never be accused of doing.

CITY OF ANGELS

Shooting War

8 p.m. on ABC

While their comrades were shooting guns, the combat photographers of World War II were shooting unforgettable pictures that preserved the war's most memorable moments for future generations. Tom Hanks hosts this two-hour special showcasing some of those great pictures and the men who took them. It includes interviews with photographers from all branches of the service and rare footage of the D-Day invasion and other key events of the war. "Time" magazine film critic Richard Schickel is the special's writer, director and producer, and Steven Spielberg is the executive producer.

City of Angels

8 p.m. on CBS

The doctor becomes the patient in "Saving Faces," as Dr. Turner develops a mysterious ailment. It could be a minor stroke, according to his neurologist, Dr. McKenna, or it could be a brain tumor. A shaken Turner, envisioning the worst-case scenario, goes to work on his will. Elsewhere in neurosurgery, the department's newest resident, Dr. Ellis (Gabrielle Union), wastes no time doing things her way.

Friday's Best Bets

Two Guys and a Girl

7 p.m. on ABC

A busted water valve in Ashley's (Suzanne Cryer) apartment floods Pete and Berg's (Richard Ruccolo, Ryan Reynolds) digs in "Drip." So they're off to find dry quarters for the night. Although Ashley's place is ground zero for the leak, it's dry there, so Pete attempts to sneak in.

Pinocchio's Christmas

7 p.m. on FAM

The mischievous puppet boy Pinocchio embarks on a new series of adventures in his quest to get Geppetto a Christmas gift. First, he sells the book that Geppetto gave him, but is soon conned out of the cash. So he joins a marionette troupe, leaving with the police hot on his little wooden tail because he's taken a cute girl puppet with him. Along the way, he learns some lessons and even manages to teach one, and Santa himself steps in to help him get home for the holidays. Alan King and veteran voice artist George S. Irving lead the voice cast of this charming 1980 production from the folks who brought us "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer."

Dot Comedy

7:30 p.m. on ABC

There's a lot of great entertainment on the Internet. Unfortunately, there's a lot of chaff mixed in with the wheat. How do you find the good stuff? You can start with this new series, which spotlights some of the best stuff on the World Wide Web, from professionally designed sites to average Joes' and Janes' above-average creations.

Guinness World Records: Primetime

8 p.m. on FOX

Why anyone would want to set a record for having the most clothespins attached to his face is beyond us, but there is someone out there who's made it his goal. He's managed to get 104 on so far, and he's attempting to break that record with at least four or five more. You'll also meet a couple with a different approach to blowing up balloons. Mark Thompson hosts.

Popular

8 p.m. on WB

The ailing Harrison (Christopher Gorham) finds his faith waning, but that may change when he meets God and discovers she looks just like Ann-Margret. Speaking of surprise encounters, Carmen and Nicole (Sara Rue, Tammy Lynn Michaels) are taken aback when they run into each other at a support group for teen-age children of alcoholics. Brooke (Leslie Bibb) is back in the hospital with her eating disorder in "Are You There God, It's Me, Ann-Margret?"

Saturday's Best Bets

Love Chronicles

2 p.m. on A&E

These days, it's not unusual for people to marry twice or even three or four times. But with a few notable exceptions, mostly in Hollywood, marrying five, six, seven or more times is as rare as having quintuplets, sextuplets or ... you get the idea. In "The Marrying Kind," host John Corbett introduces some folks who have become old hands at tying the knot – as many as 23 times.

College Basketball

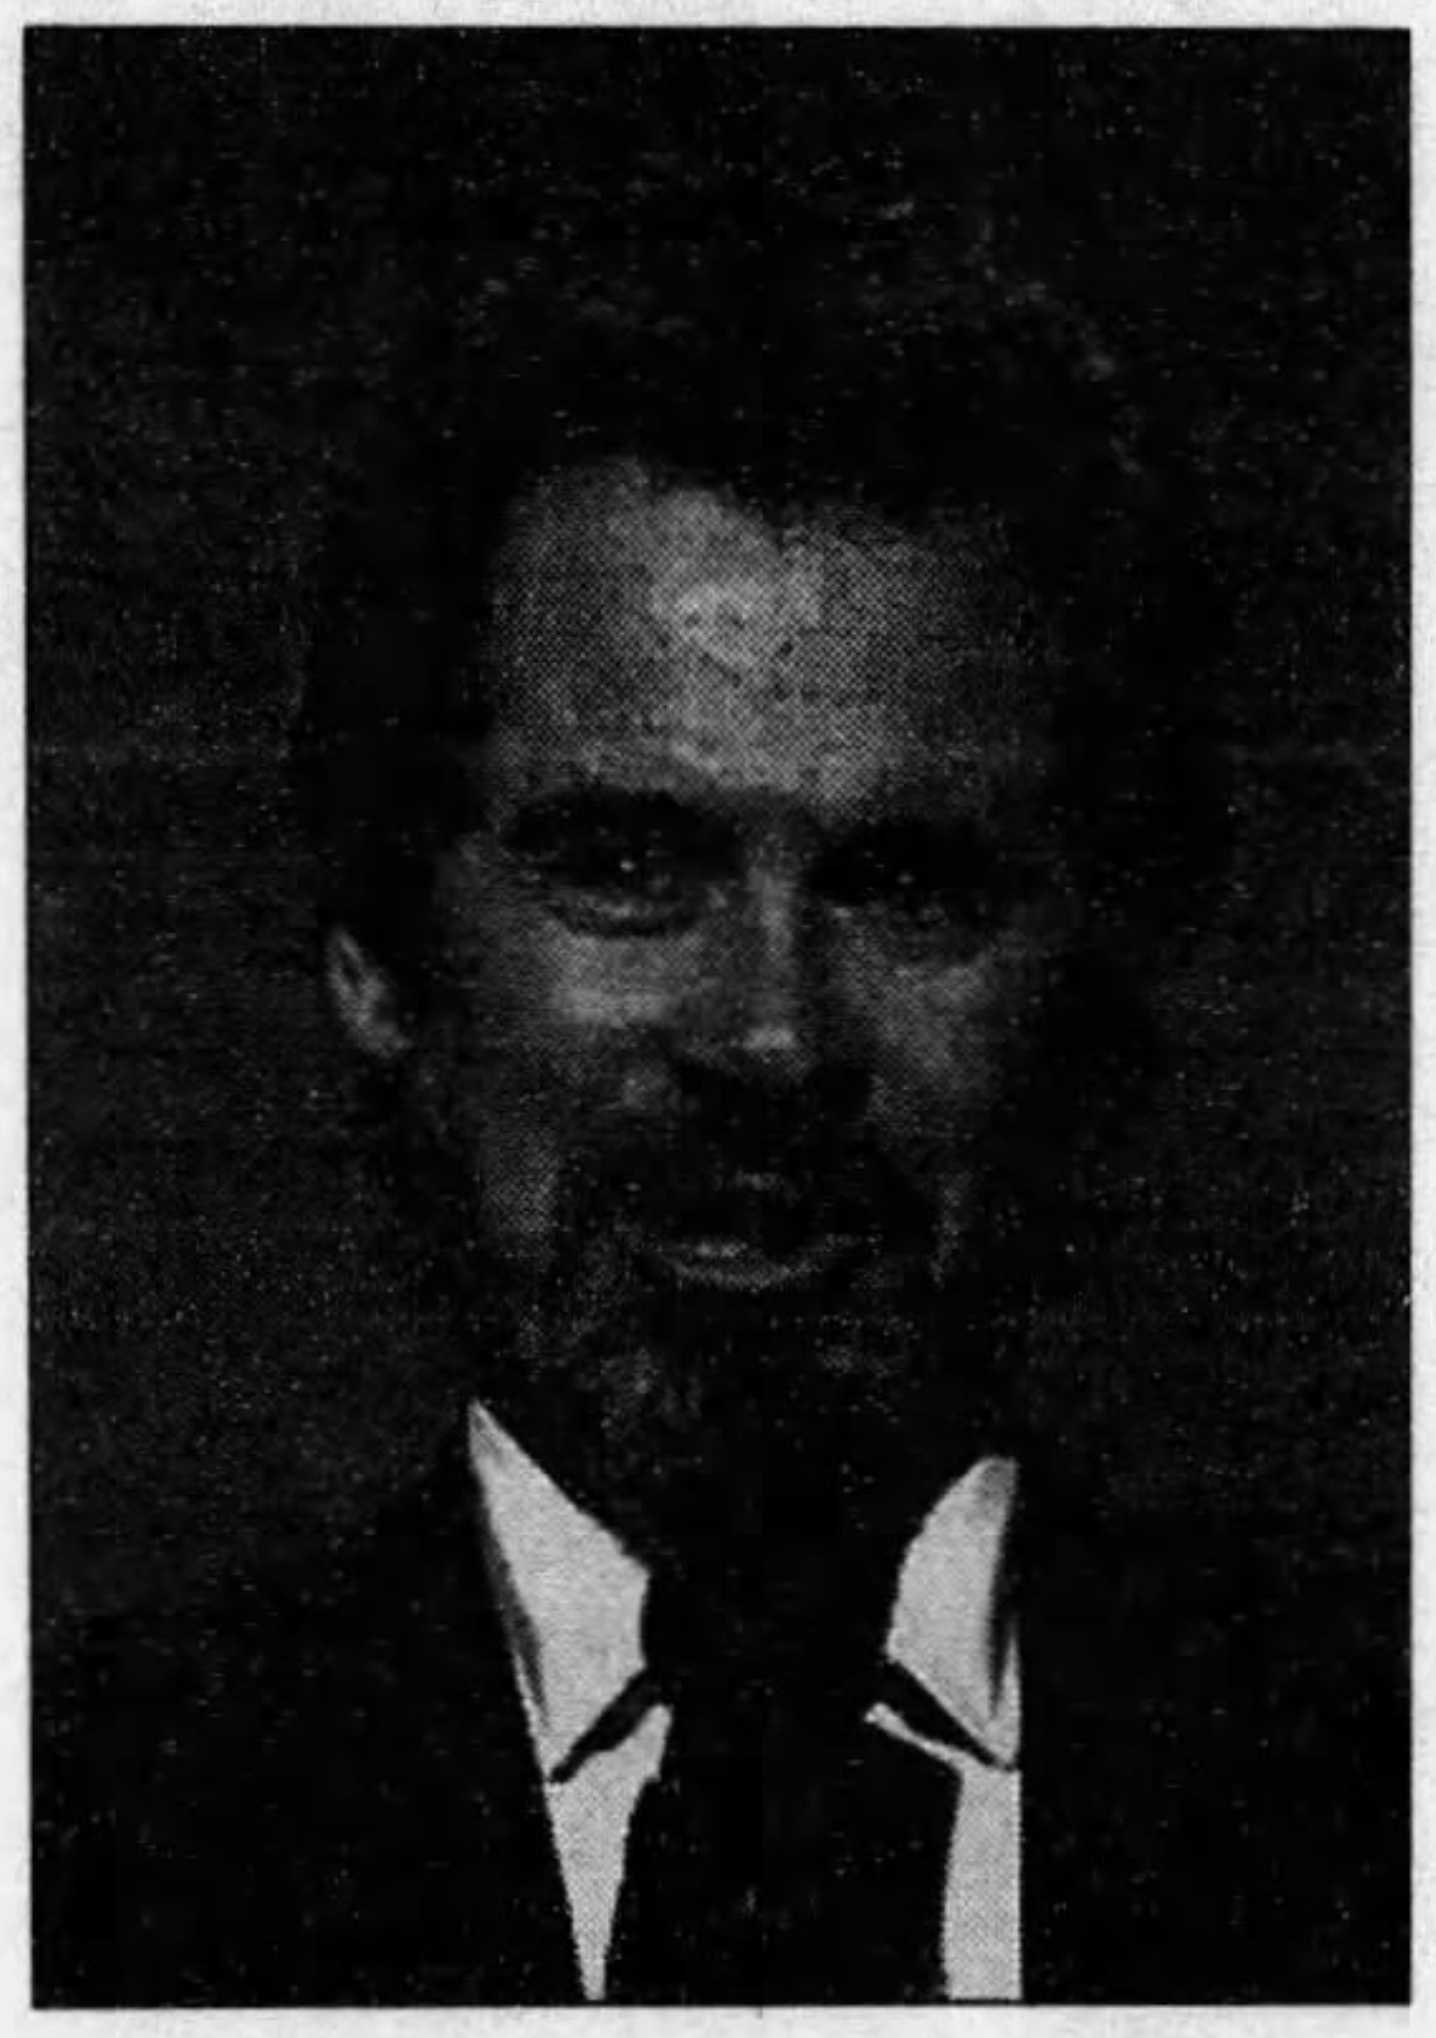
3 p.m. on CBS

The fans will be packed into Gampel Pavilion cheering for an upset, and the Connecticut Huskies hope to oblige the faithful when they battle preseason No. 1 Arizona. Connecticut is being billed as the team to beat in the Big East, although it'll need to find a leader and go-to guy to replace guard Khalid El-Amin. Today, the Huskies venture out of conference against the formidable Wildcats, who return all five starters, including future pros Loren Woods and Richard Jefferson.

Mickey's Christmas Carol

7 p.m. on ABC

Despite the title, Mickey Mouse isn't the star of this 1983 animated remake of the Charles Dickens classic. It's Scrooge McDuck, of course, who plays the sour skinflint whose name he shares, with Mickey as his put-upon clerk, Bob Cratchit. Goofy rattles the chains of Marley's ghost, while Jiminy Cricket appears as the Ghost of Christmas Past, and Willie the Giant of "Mickey and the Beanstalk" is a larger-than-life Ghost of Christmas Present. Alan Young provides the voice of Scrooge.



Dennis Miller
GQ'S MEN OF THE YEAR

GQ's Men of the Year Awards

7 p.m. on FOX

Mention "GQ," and most people think "style." But the magazine's salute to accomplished men is about more than how they dress – although there are categories for most stylish man and fashion designer of distinction. Dennis Miller hosts the awards gala and presents the film actor award to Russell Crowe. Two Matthews – Broderick and Perry – are honored for theater and TV comedy, respectively, while James Gandolfini is the top man in TV drama. Other honorees include Michael J. Fox (Courage Award), Ted Koppel, Shaquille O'Neal and Pete Sampras, and Carlos Santana. The stylish-guy prize goes to Pierce Brosnan, and Giorgio Armani is the designer of the hour. Julia Roberts and Barbara Walters are among the other presenters at the event, which includes performances by Enrique Iglesias, Third Eye Blind and 98 Degrees.

Bridges follows in dad's boots to take on role of Santa Claus

By John Crook

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

Beau Bridges says it was an easy call when the producers of "The Christmas Secret" invited him to play Santa Claus.

"It's very hard to pass up," the Emmy-winning actor says. "It's a wonderful opportunity, especially if you've got five kids like I do.

"In our family, my father (Lloyd Bridges) was the first to do it in a TV movie called "In the Nick of Time," and I can remember how much all of his grandkids enjoyed watching him. It's fun for me to have that same opportunity this time around, and it's a really fun story."

Inspired by "Flight of the Reindeer," Robert Sullivan's whimsical 1996 best seller that offered tongue-in-cheek "proof" that reindeer can fly, "The Christmas Secret," which premieres Sunday, Dec. 17, on CBS, also stars Richard Thomas ("The Waltons") as Jerry McNeal, a sociology professor who has been haunted by the conviction that reindeer can fly ever since a childhood incident in which one of the animals rescued him from a fall.

Years later, he remains almost obsessed by the subject, to the dismay of his wife (Maria Pitillo). After a student presents him with a 19th-century scientific journal that traces flying reindeer to their origin near the North Pole, an elated Jerry hops a plane to that region. After the plane runs out of fuel and crashes, however, Jerry finds himself in a magical village run by the robust and jolly Nick (Bridges) — Santa Claus himself. Unfortunately, Nick tells Jerry it will be impossible for him to leave until he can prove that he really believes in Santa and the Christmas spirit.

"When you first see me, it's almost very unmagical, because there I am with my wife and the elves, and I'm just this guy who is working under this deadline and is working on toys in all this hustle and bustle," Bridges says. "Suddenly, here comes this stranger who just fell into their laps, and I've got to decide what to do with him.

"Ultimately, it's all about this man trying to get home, although he is surrounded by the answers to all his dreams. In the end, it's a story about belief, which is a pretty universal tag on most Christmas stories. What makes this one especially heartwarming is that it's about a family trying to get and stay together."

Despite the story's fantastic overtones, Bridges says he thinks viewers will find the movie grounded in reality, partly because of Thomas' naturalistic approach to acting, something Bridges tried to bring to the role of Santa as well.

"Even when I am playing a character that is obviously very far removed from my own experience, I owe it to the audience to inhabit that character as fully as I can," Bridges says. "I remember as a child, fantasizing about being one of Santa's helpers, and some remnants of that are still there in my psyche.

"But a lot of it was imagining what it would be like having that kind of an assignment, a man who had to deliver gifts and hope and love to everyone in the world. It was fun to get into what it would be like to feel that kind of pressure."

Despite its attempts at naturalism, the CBS movie boasts some impressive special effects sequences as well, Bridges says.

"There are quite a few effects, including these military warplanes that come after Santa at one point, and there's a big chase while they try to blow him out of the air or something," Bridges says with a laugh.

ABC's 'Once' will make room for 'Blue'

Pipeline

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Two of my favorite shows, "Judging Amy" and "Once and Again," are opposite each other again. Will "Once and Again" move after football season as it did last year? -Margaret Kunstman, Appleton, Wis.

Yes, as reported previously, the Sela Ward-Billy Campbell drama will move to Mondays in early 2001 to make room for the returning "NYPD Blue" on Tuesdays.

Why did Steven Hill leave "Law & Order"? -Robert Nader, Atlanta.

Several fans have expressed concern about the 78-year-old actor's health. A spokesman for the show said Hill is fine, but the tedious commute from his home to the set was wearing thin. As an Orthodox Jew, Hill also occasionally found it difficult to arrange his shooting schedule around days of religious observance.

Please help me remember: Didn't Bing Crosby have a brother named Bob? -Ida Rawls, Flint, Mich.

Yes, Bob Crosby — eight years younger than Bing — had a career as a bandleader and actor. He died of cancer in 1993 at age 79.

What was the name of the TV movie that starred Lindsay Wagner as a woman who goes back in time after she puts on an antique dress she finds in a house she buys? Is it available on video? -James M. via e-mail.

Over the years I think I have been asked about this movie more than any other. It's "The Two Worlds of Jennie Logan," a 1978 drama co-starring Marc Singer and Linda Gray. To the best of my knowledge, it's not available on home video, but TV Pipeline cannot perform individual video searches, so you may want to do some hunting on your own now that you know the title. Good luck!

CORRECTION: Pvt. James Frederick Ryan, the "Saving Private Ryan" character played by Nathan Fillion of "Two Guys and a Girl," was not related to the title character played by Matt Damon in that movie. Thanks to Robert Reed of Tyler, Texas, for pointing out that recent error.

Sunday's Best Bets

Movie: The Sound of Music

6 p.m. on NBC

Julie Andrews' sweet voice fills the hills in this Academy Award-winning musical based on the true story of Austria's singing Von Trapp family. Her character, Maria, governess to a wealthy naval officer's (Christopher Plummer) children, captures all their hearts, brings music into their lives and helps them flee the Nazis. The songs — "My Favorite Things," "Do-Re-Mi," "The Sound of Music," "Edelweiss" and more — have become standards. Eleanor Parker, Peggy Wood, Anna Lee ("General Hospital") and Heather Menzies — who grew up to be Mrs. Robert Urich — also star.

Christianity: The Second Millennium

7 p.m. on A&E

Christianity was in its adolescence at the dawn of the 11th century, and like any adolescent, it had a great deal of growing, changing and pain to go through. This four-hour special reviews the good, the bad and the ugly of the religion's second 1,000 years. It profiles Christianity's great leaders while revisiting its not-so-great moments — the Inquisition, for example — and explaining how the upheaval of the Reformation paved the way for church-state separation and modern Western civilization. Actor Dorian Harewood narrates the two-part special, which concludes Monday.

THE SOUND OF MUSIC

Christmas in Washington

7 p.m. on TNT

Younger viewers might ho-hum such a hoary holiday chestnut as the annual Christmas concert from the capital. But that may change when they find out who's on the bill this year. Sarah Michelle Gellar ("Buffy the Vampire Slayer") hosts the event, which includes music by Marc Anthony, Jessica Simpson, Billy Gilman, Brian McKnight, the Corrs and Barenaked Ladies. Sitting in the audience are President Bill Clinton and first lady Hillary Rodham Clinton, who has decreed that proceeds from the concert will go to the Children's National Medical Center.

Malcolm in the Middle

7:30 p.m. on FOX

Reese's (Justin Berfield) reputation as a tough guy lies bloody and bruised beyond repair after he's beaten at wrestling by (gasp!) a girl. While he attempts to forge a new rep for himself as a nice guy, Malcolm (Frankie Muniz) feels the repercussions of no longer having a big, bad big brother to keep bullies off his case. Jane Kaczmarek and Bryan Cranston also star in "The Bully."

When threatened with ax, it couldn't hurt to branch out

What is going on with talk show hosts these days? Doesn't anyone like the job anymore?

For more than a year now, smooth-talking Regis Philbin has been moonlighting on the ABC game show "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire." Queen of daytime Oprah Winfrey has donned several hats, including those of TV movie producer and publisher of the magazine "O."

Ricki Lake has been burning the midnight oil by filming episodes of the CBS sitcom "The King of Queens." She plays the lead character's sister, and producers apparently are happy with her performance. They allegedly want her to cancel her talk show so she can join the "King" cast full time.

Lake reportedly said she loves her daytime job too much to give it up. Hmm, she may change her mind like Rosie O'Donnell.

Talk the Talk

Comic Chris Rock must be jealous of these women who get to determine their own destiny in the talk business.

His late-night talk show on HBO ended its four-year run last month. Despite being nominated for several Emmys over the years and winning one in 1999, "The Chris Rock Show" is off the air. At least he still has his movie career!

Dr. Laura Schlessinger may be right behind Drudge on the cancelation list. Surrounded by controversy since the moment she signed a contract for a TV show, her ratings have been dropping.

Apparently, this isn't bad news for the ladies of "The View." Meredith Vieira, Lisa Ling, Joy Behar and Star Jones recently shared with their audience a Top 10 list of celebrities whom publicists would least like to represent.

Oprah Winfrey

The difficult, obnoxious, demanding or just plain controversial personalities are boxer Mike Tyson, shock jock Howard Stern, former NBA star Dennis Rodman, entertainer Kathie Lee Gifford, baseball's Darryl Strawberry, director Woody Allen, domestic doyenne Martha Stewart, rapper-producer Sean "Puffy" Combs, and, of course, rapper Eminem and talk show host Dr. Laura.

Monday's Best Bets

Movie: Camelot
12 p.m. on AMC

The 1967 film adaptation of Lerner & Loewe's musical King Arthur tale suffers from the lack of the Broadway version's big three stars: Richard Burton, Julie Andrews and Robert Goulet. But with its timeless story, great songs, and Oscar-winning sets, costumes and scoring, it's still a treat. Richard Harris stars as King Arthur, who dreams of creating a medieval Utopia ruled by right, not might. Vanessa Redgrave plays his queen, Guenevere, who breaks his heart by falling in love with his finest knight, Lancelot (Franco Nero). David Hemmings ("Gladiator") plays Arthur's nemesis, Mordred, with Laurence Naismith ("Diamonds Are Forever," "Scrooge") as Merlyn.

The King of Queens
7 p.m. on CBS

In "Noel Cowards," Arthur (Jerry Stiller) comes up with what he thinks will be the perfect Christmas gift for Doug and Carrie (Kevin James, Leah Remini): a way to solve their continuing car trouble. But his cure turns out to be worse than the disease, giving new meaning to the word "backfire." Larry Romano also stars.

The Parkers
7:30 p.m. on UPN

Professor Oglevee (Dorien Wilson) is betting his paycheck on victory in the Junior College Bowl, and Nikki (Mo'Nique) is happy to help by putting together a team that's sure to ace the academic competition.

Tony Danza and Kathleen Quinlan
FAMILY LAW

Maneaters of the Wild
8 p.m. on USA

Children's literature is full of tales of people being eaten alive by bears, wolves (remember Little Red Riding Hood?) and other vicious creatures. But how many true maneaters are out there? This two-part special, with both parts airing back to back, takes viewers from Asia to the American Midwest for a look at some of the world's most dangerous animals. In addition, it has stories of encounters with bears and other killer critters and information on some unlikely enemies of man, including the gentle hippopotamus.

Family Law
9 p.m. on CBS

Take-no-prisoners lawyer Joe Celano (Tony Danza) is with Lynn's (Kathleen Quinlan) firm now, but in the season premiere, "The Choice," he was on the other side, representing a Guatemalan woman who tried to kidnap the 5-year-old adopted son of Lynn's neighbors and clients. But this is no ordinary kidnapping, it turns out; the would-be abductor is the boy's birth mother, who claims she never authorized his adoption.

Tuesday's Best Bets

College Basketball

6 p.m. on ESPN

Tennessee battles Virginia to kick off the Jimmy V Classic in East Rutherford, N.J., the annual holiday tournament celebrating former North Carolina State coach Jim Valvano. Following the first game, the marquee matchup of the night pits hometown Seton Hall against defending national champion Michigan State. Spartans coach Tom Izzo has assembled another deep, quality team. Tonight, they'll have to find a way to stop super Seton Hall freshman Eddie Griffin, who set team scoring and rebounding records in his first three games.

Who Wants to Be a Millionaire

7 p.m. on ABC

Some lucky college students could win enough to pay their tuition bills up front in a three-day student-only edition of the hit game show. Thirty finalists from schools around the country, selected from a nationwide contestant search, vie in "Fastest Finger" competition for a stint in the "Hot Seat" and a chance to win a cool million. Regis Philbin hosts.

That '70s Show

7 p.m. on FOX

In "Hyde's Rager," Hyde and his father, Bud, (Danny Masterson, Robert Hays) host a Christmas party for the gang at Bud's house, and it's not pretty. A drinking game leaves Eric reeling, literally, and he comes home and loses dinner on Red's shoes, prompting Red to give Bud a piece of his mind. The girls tire of the scene at Bud's and go with Laurie to a bar, where they hope to find some more mature guys.

THAT '70S SHOW

A Very Special Christmas From Washington, D.C.

7 p.m. on TNT

In what's become a ratings winner for TNT, a star-studded lineup of musical artists takes the stage to celebrate the birthday of the Special Olympics, the global athletic program for mentally challenged children and adults.

City Confidential

8 p.m. on A&E

"Boston: Betrayal in Beantown" remembers a story that would be eerily echoed seven years later in South Carolina: A loved one's loss is blamed on a mysterious black carjacker. Charles Stuart told police he and his pregnant wife had been shot, and his wife mortally wounded, by a black man as they were leaving a childbirth class. The mother and child died, and the hunt for the killer was on, with virtually no black man in the area above suspicion.

Movie: How to Marry a Billionaire: A Christmas Tale

7 p.m. on FOX

Despite airing on Fox and bearing a similar title, this new romantic comedy has no connection whatsoever to a certain notorious Fox reality special. It's a role-reversed remake of 1953's "How to Marry a Millionaire," with three men in the Marilyn Monroe, Lauren Bacall and Betty Grable parts. John Stamos, Joshua Malina and Shemar Moore star as a starving artist, an out-of-work teacher and a struggling actor who have had enough of just scraping by. They borrow some big bucks and a beach house and start "shopping" for the ultimate Christmas gifts for themselves: wealthy wives. But being a holiday movie, you know they'll soon discover what's really important. Dabney Coleman, Rhea Perlman and Gabrielle Anwar also star.

NHL Hockey

7 p.m. on ESPN

A rematch of the Stanley Cup Finals between the Dallas Stars and the New Jersey Devils highlights the Wednesday NHL schedule. The Devils, of course, won the Cup in double overtime of Game 6, this after losing Game 5 in triple overtime, an indication of how closely these two clubs are matched. Since then, very little has changed with the finalists, including top-line playmakers Mike Modano of the Stars and Jason Arnott of the Devils.

HOW TO MARRY A BILLIONAIRE: A CHRISTMAS TALE

The West Wing

8 p.m. on NBC

In last year's memorable Christmas story, "In Excelsis Deo," Toby (Richard Schiff) seeks more information about a destitute, long-forgotten war hero after discovering a poignant connection to the man: He died wearing a coat that Toby once gave to charity. Rumors that Leo's (John Spencer) past drug problem may hit the headlines send Sam and Josh (Rob Lowe, Bradley Whitford) to chat with Sam's hooker friend (Lisa Edelstein). The president (Martin Sheen) sneaks out to Christmas shop while C.J. (Allison Janney) frets about his response to a high-profile hate crime.

American Justice

8 p.m. on A&E

"A Family Secret: The Death of Lisa Steinberg" remembers the case that forever shattered the myth that only lower-class men beat their mates and children. In 1987, 6-year-old Lisa died at the hands of lawyer Joel Steinberg, who had illegally adopted her with his live-in lover, Hedda Nussbaum. Steinberg went to prison, but authorities decided against prosecuting Nussbaum, deeming her too brutalized by her partner to have abused Lisa — or help her.

Friday's Best Bets

Disney's American Teacher Awards

6 p.m. on LIFE

Debbie Allen, Ruben Blades, Ray Romano, Janine Turner and other stars are at the party, but the guests of honor are 33 teachers who exemplify the best of the education profession. The honorees win cash prizes, slots in a special professional development program and the chance to choose one of their number as outstanding teacher of the year. The awards show also includes the presentation of the Frank G. Wells Award — a special prize for someone who teaches without working as a teacher — to Oprah Winfrey. Music by teen-age singer Rachel Lampa closes out the special.

Movie: Home Alone 3

7 p.m. on FOX

A stolen microchip hidden in a toy car falls into the hands of an innocent woman (Marian Seldes) who gives the plaything to her 8-year-old neighbor (Alex D. Linz). But four bumbling smugglers want their booty back — at least until they encounter the boy, who's home sick from school and waiting for them to make their move.

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

Perry Como was a barber by training — starting his apprenticeship at age 10 — but by 14, he had his own barbershop and was keeping his customers amused by doing what he loved even more than shearing and shaving. That, of course, was singing, which became his full-time job after he was hired as a vocalist with a band, later joining a national ensemble. When World War II broke up the band, Como moved into radio, recording and ultimately TV, the medium that would make him a star.

Norm

8 p.m. on ABC

In "Norm vs. Christmas," enthusiastic yule booster Norm (Norm Macdonald) discovers that Laurie (Laurie Metcalf) has no use for the holiday. But Charles Dickens and countless Christmas-themed sitcom episodes have proved that it's possible to convert a scrooge, so Norm gets busy. Danny (Ian Gomez) has his own reasons for getting into the holiday spirit; he hopes the "secret Santa" exchange will give him a chance to make his feelings known to Taylor (Nikki Cox). Max Wright also stars.

Popular

8 p.m. on WB

Nicole (Tammy Lynn Michaels) gets the Dickens scared out of her in "Fall on Your Knees" when her lack of holiday spirit crosses the line into sheer meanness. Three ghosts pay her a visit to demonstrate that she's courting trouble by forgetting that "good will to men" applies to unpopular kids, too.

Movie: Quints

7:30 p.m. on DISN

Thirteen-year-old Jamie learns the hard way to be careful what she wishes for in this family drama. The Wish Fairy must be on speed, however, because Jamie soon becomes the big sister to five — count 'em, five — little sibs. Now she's gone from getting all the attention to none at all. But don't worry; she'll rise to the occasion and even teach Mom, Dad and the nurse a thing or five about the new additions.

Saturday's Best Bets

Movie: Mr. Holland's Opus

7 p.m. on ABC

Richard Dreyfuss shines in this heartwarming, tear-jerking 1995 drama as an aspiring composer who takes a "temporary" job as a high-school music teacher to make ends meet. Many years and many heartaches later, it becomes clear that his greatest masterpiece is not a work of music, but the hundreds of young lives he's changed.

The Story of Santa Claus

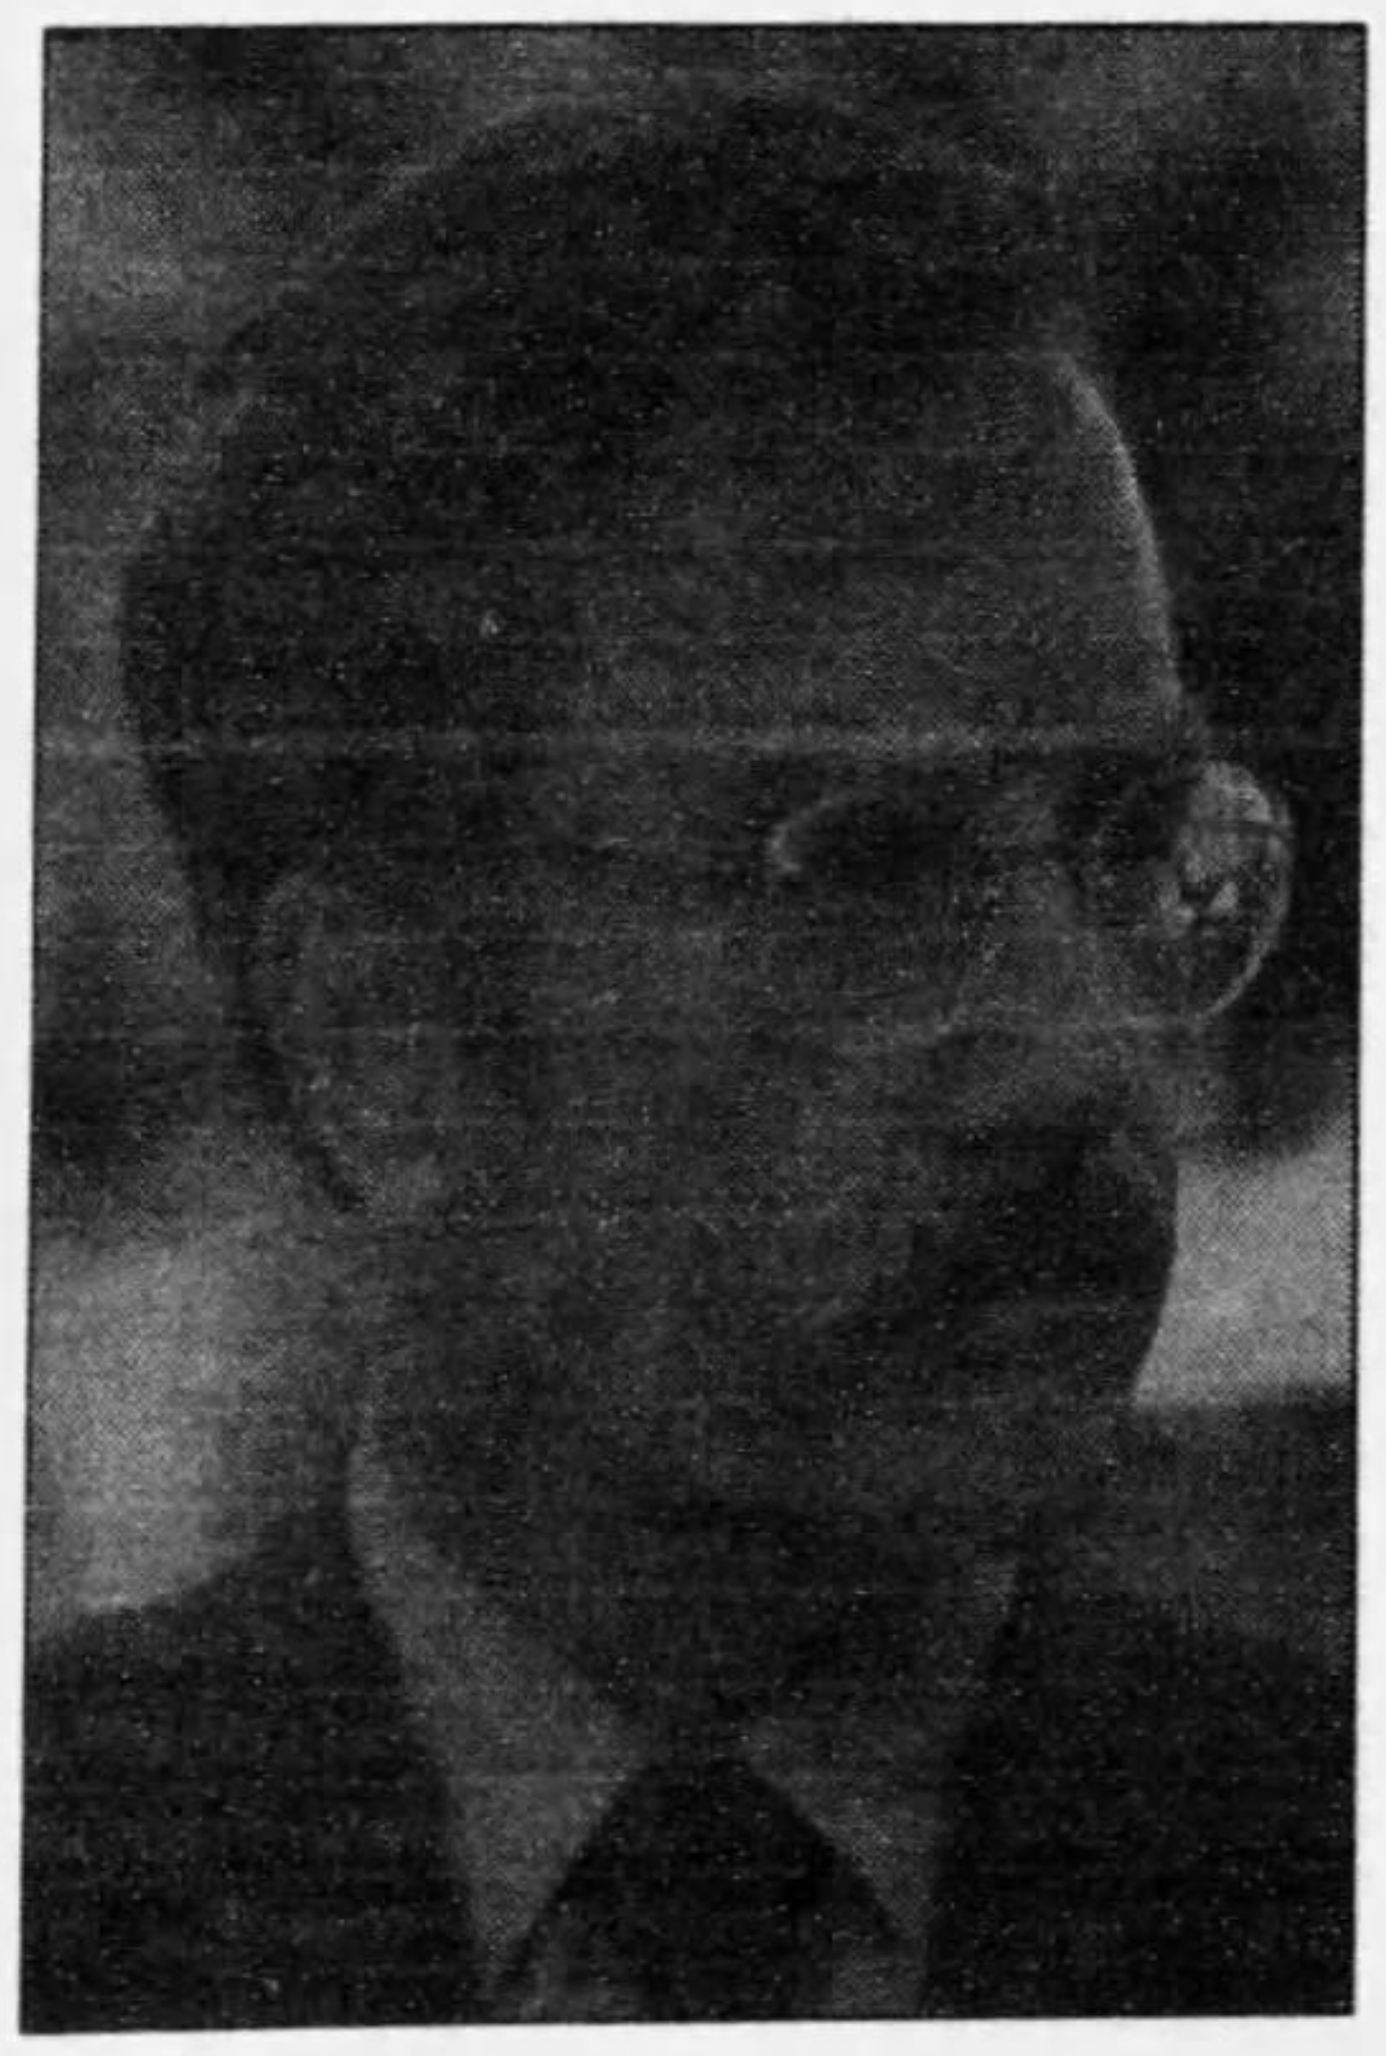
7 p.m. on CBS

A toymaker and his wife, evicted from their shop, head to an orphanage to deliver their only remaining bag of toys. When they get lost in a storm, they find themselves at the North Pole, where they meet a group of elves. After saving an elf's life, Santa is allowed to make one wish. The elves then must use all their magic to make his wish of giving every child a toy come true. Ed Asner and Betty White provide voices in this animated special.

Movie: Michael

7:05 p.m. on TBS

John Travolta plays this offbeat 1996 fantasy's title character, an angel whose job is fighting evil but whose hobby is reveling in earthly pleasures: beer, cigarettes, sugar and women. He's more than willing to oblige the three tabloid reporters who want to take him to Chicago and front-page fame; the trip will give him a chance to see a few sights and perform a few good works. Andie MacDowell, William Hurt and Robert Pastorelli also star.



Richard Dreyfuss
MR. HOLLAND'S OPUS

Movie: Breaking Away

7:15 p.m. on AMC

Dennis Christopher ("Profiler") stars in this lighthearted 1979 drama as Dave, chief "spokes" man for a group of downtrodden townies who take on their university neighbors in a bicycle race. Paul Dooley steals every scene he's in as Dave's flabbergasted father, who can't fathom his son's obsession with cycling Italian-style.

Great Books: Les Miserables

9 p.m. on TLC

What Charles Dickens did for the downtrodden of England, Victor Hugo did for their French counterparts. His 1862 novel "Les Miserables" ranks among Western literature's greatest works of social commentary disguised as fiction. Penal reform was a major item on Hugo's agenda, and he made the hero of his masterpiece, Jean Valjean, a man put behind bars for the petty and necessary theft of a loaf of bread. Among those offering input on the novel are a real-life ex-con who, like Jean Valjean, served a long sentence for a nonviolent first offense.

Yes, Virginia, there is something else on TV

By Beverly Foster Seinberg

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

So Christmas is here, and you have some time to plop down in front of the tube. But the last thing you want to see is a Grinch, a talking snowman, a red-nosed reindeer, a kid lusting after a Red Ryder BB gun, a miser stalked by ghosts or a big guy in a red suit for the umpteenth time.

Maybe you're Jewish, or Buddhist, or atheist. Maybe you believe in Christmas but are turned off by the secular subject matter of most yuletide TV. Maybe your family is thousands of miles away, your friends are busy with family stuff, and you'd just as soon not be reminded that it's Christmas and you're alone. Or maybe you've just had your fill of Scrooges and Santas for another year.

Fear not, for we bring good tidings of great joy to all couch potatoes. If you know where to look, there's plenty on TV Sunday, Dec. 24, and Monday, Dec. 25 — a k a Christmas Eve and Christmas Day — that has nothing to do with the holiday.

First, though, you should know where not to point your remote if you're on a yule-free diet.

The broadcast networks, if they don't have holiday specials or football games on tap, tend to offer Christmas-themed episodes of their regularly scheduled shows. In prime time, that usually means reruns, since no network wants to waste its precious "all new" material at a time when so many folks are too busy to watch.

Cable is more of a mixed bag. TNT is the holiday overkill champ, airing 26 straight hours of the 1983 classic "A Christmas Story." Granted, it's a great film, but how many times can you watch little Ralphie (Peter Billingsley) get booted down Santa's slide or the hapless Flick (Scott Schwartz) get his tongue stuck on that flagpole?

Cartoon Network, too, is all Christmas, all the time, with everyone from the Smurfs and the Tiny Toons to Scooby Doo, the Flintstones and, of course, the Grinch strutting their holiday stuff.

Lifetime has an assortment of forgettable made-for-TV Christmas fare, from "Ebbie" — Susan Lucci as a female Ebenezer Scrooge — to "Unlikely Angel" — Dolly Parton as a female clone of Clarence from "It's a Wonderful Life" — on Sunday, but with the exception of Christmas-themed "Murphy Brown" and "Golden Girls" reruns in the morning and late afternoon, the channel's Christmas Day lineup is relatively un-Christmasy.

TNN has its usual weekend assortment of rods, reels, rifles and race cars on Sunday but drags out the Very Special Christmas Episodes from its rerun vault to fill Monday.

But enough about what you don't want to watch. Where's that non-Christmas stuff hiding?

As it does on most holidays, Sci-Fi Channel chimes in with a Chain Reaction — its term for marathon. This particular one offers 20 hours of that cheesy but cherished space series "Battlestar Galactica."

Sci-Fi devotes most of Monday to a minimarathon of Abbott and Costello monster movies: "A&C Meet Frankenstein" et al.

If spaceships and scary slapstick aren't your cup of eggnog, check out cable's fab four "educational" channels: A&E Network, Discovery Channel, TLC and The History Channel, whose holiday programming on Sunday and Monday ranges from scant to nonexistent.

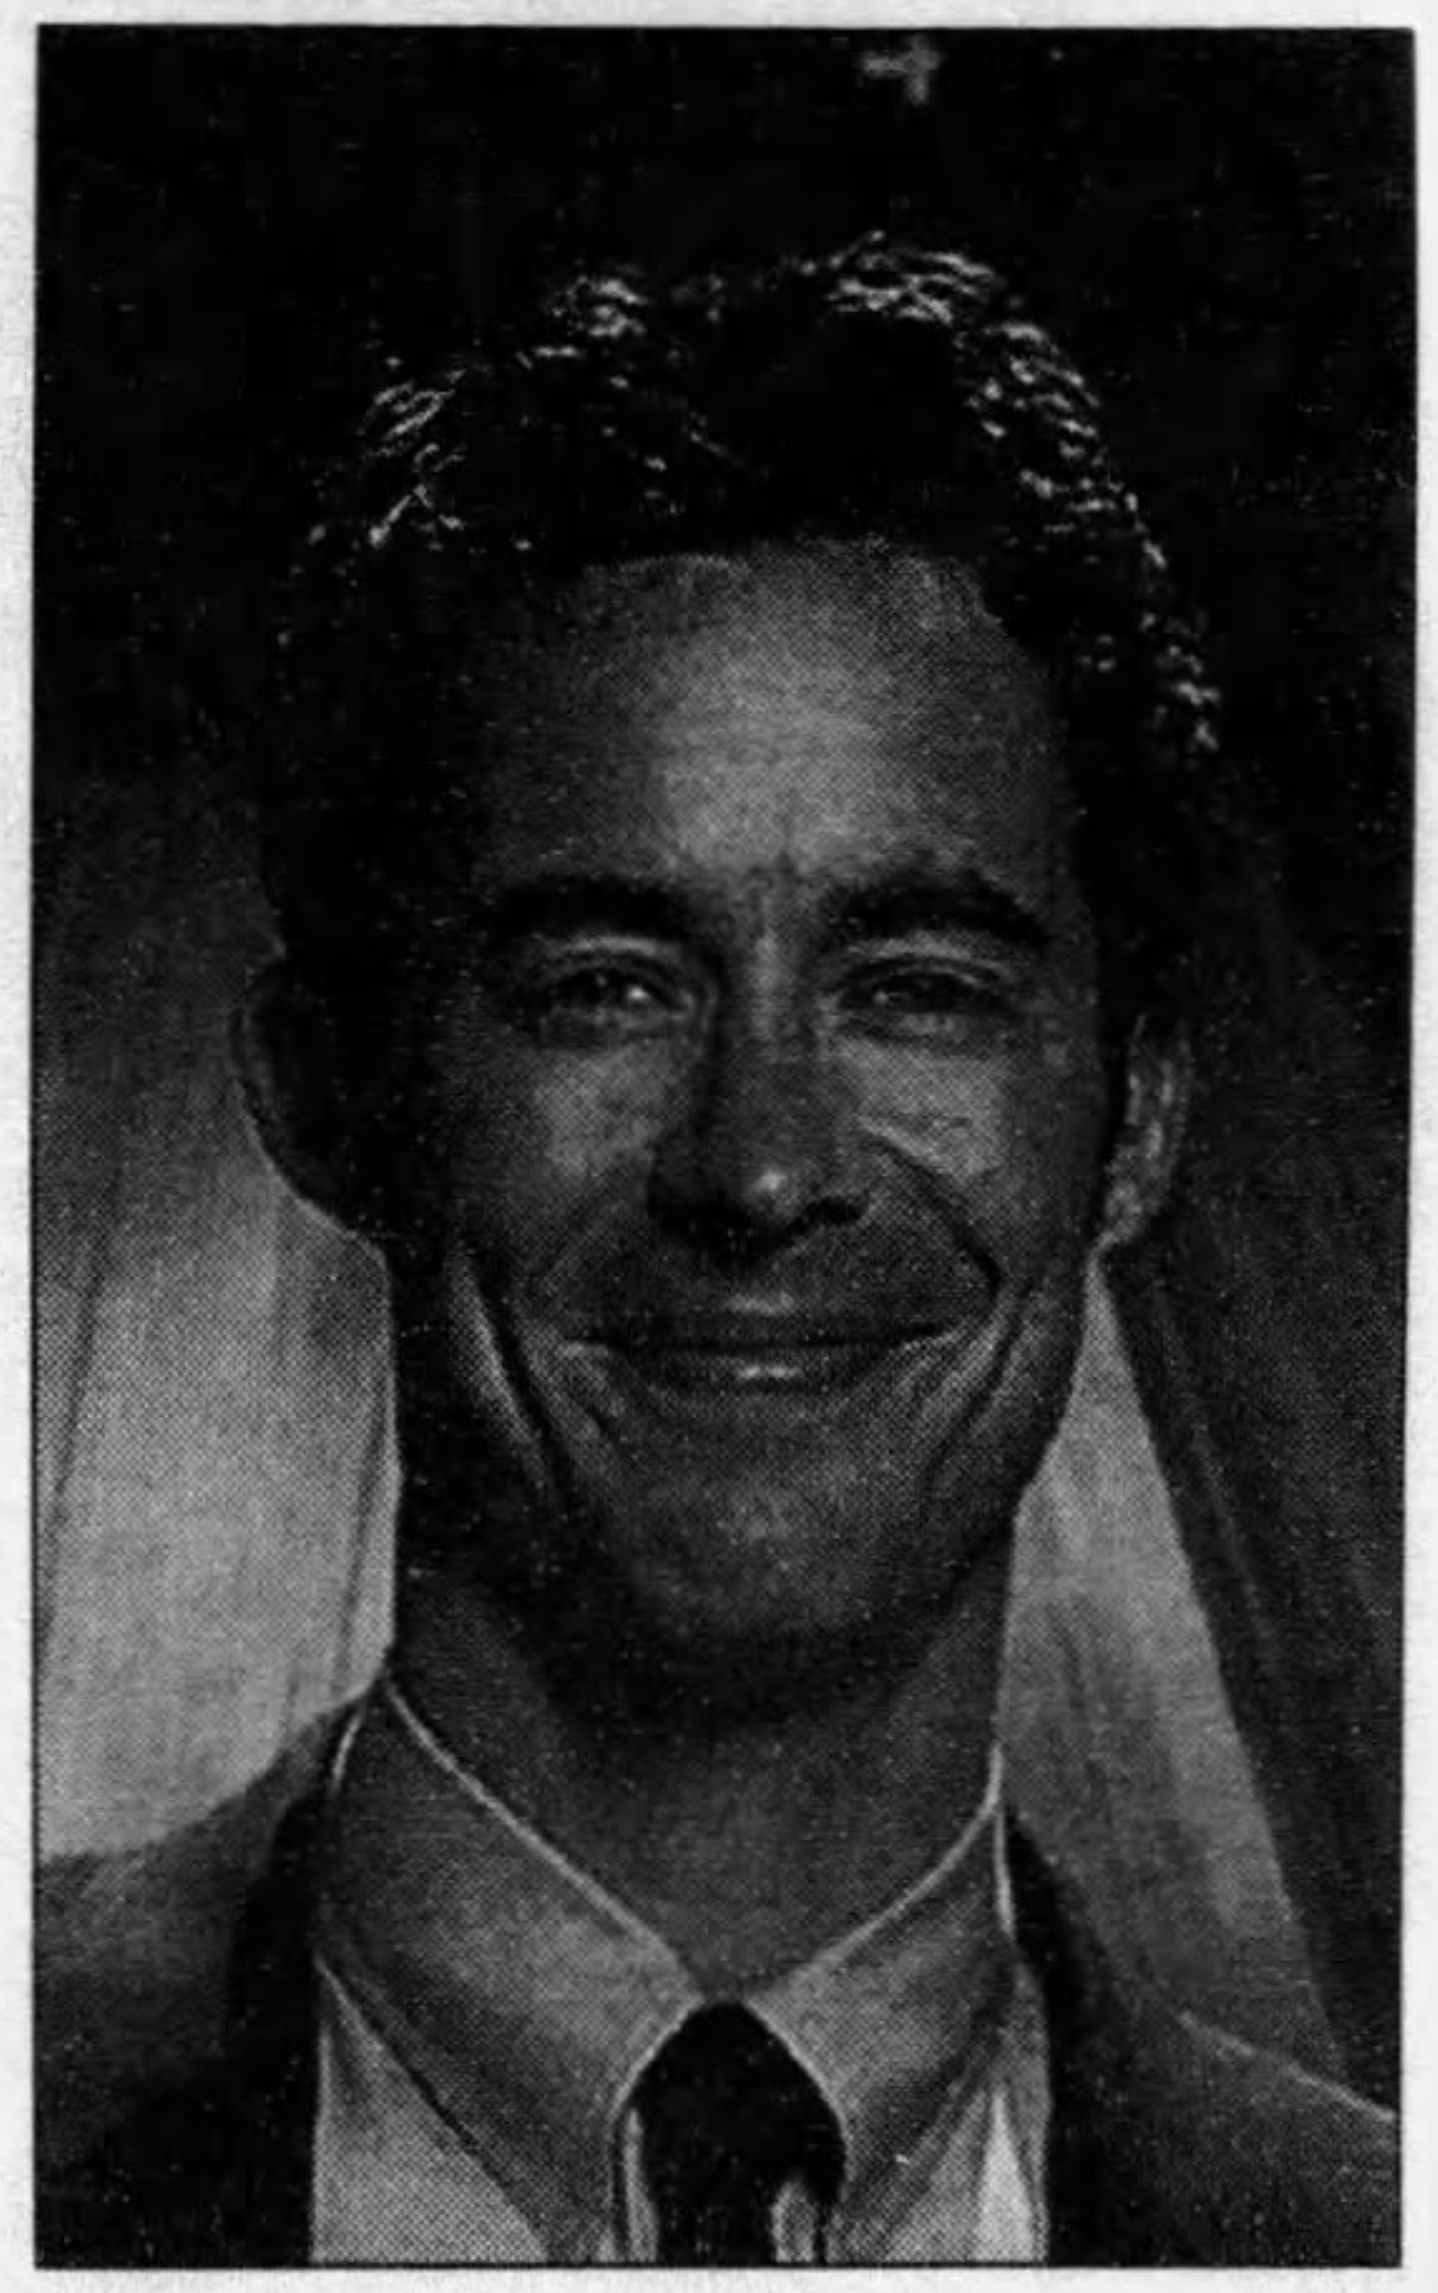
Star of 'Ed' spent time in 'Providence'



Tom Cavanagh
ED

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

I love NBC's "Ed." Is the star of the series the man who was on "Providence" working for Joanie? -Maggie Migli, Vero Beach, Fla.

Yes, during what turned out to be an unusually long development period for "Ed," actor Tom Cavanagh guest starred on "Providence" as Doug Boyce, a young man who believed he was a dog until he discovered his "inner man."

What is the name of the score to NBC's "The West Wing"? I love it! It is so well-suited to the show! -Claudette March, Mohawk, N.Y.

There is no all-around title for the score, Claudette, but I could not agree with you more about this stirring music, which won a richly deserved Emmy for composer W.G. Snuffy Walden this fall.

You'll want to watch for Walden's new Windham Hill recording coming out in January. It isn't a "West Wing" soundtrack, but it does include a ""West Wing" Suite" Walden put together using themes from the show. The CD also includes the "West Wing" main title as it is heard at the opening of NBC's hit drama.

Walden told me recently that "West Wing" has turned out to be the most rewarding assignment of his career, and you can tell that by the way he really pours his heart into this work.

Can you help me find a tape of "The Miracle Worker" with Roma Downey and Moira Kelly? -Mary Perkowski, Inverness, Fla.

Actually, Mary, what you are looking for isn't "The Miracle Worker"; it's "Monday After the Miracle," a 1998 "Miracle Worker" sequel that covered the later years in the lives of Annie Sullivan and Helen Keller (Downey and Kelly, respectively). I don't believe it's currently available on home video, but with dozens of new titles being released each week, you might want to keep your eyes open for it.

Sunday's Best Bets

Movie: Miracle on 34th Street

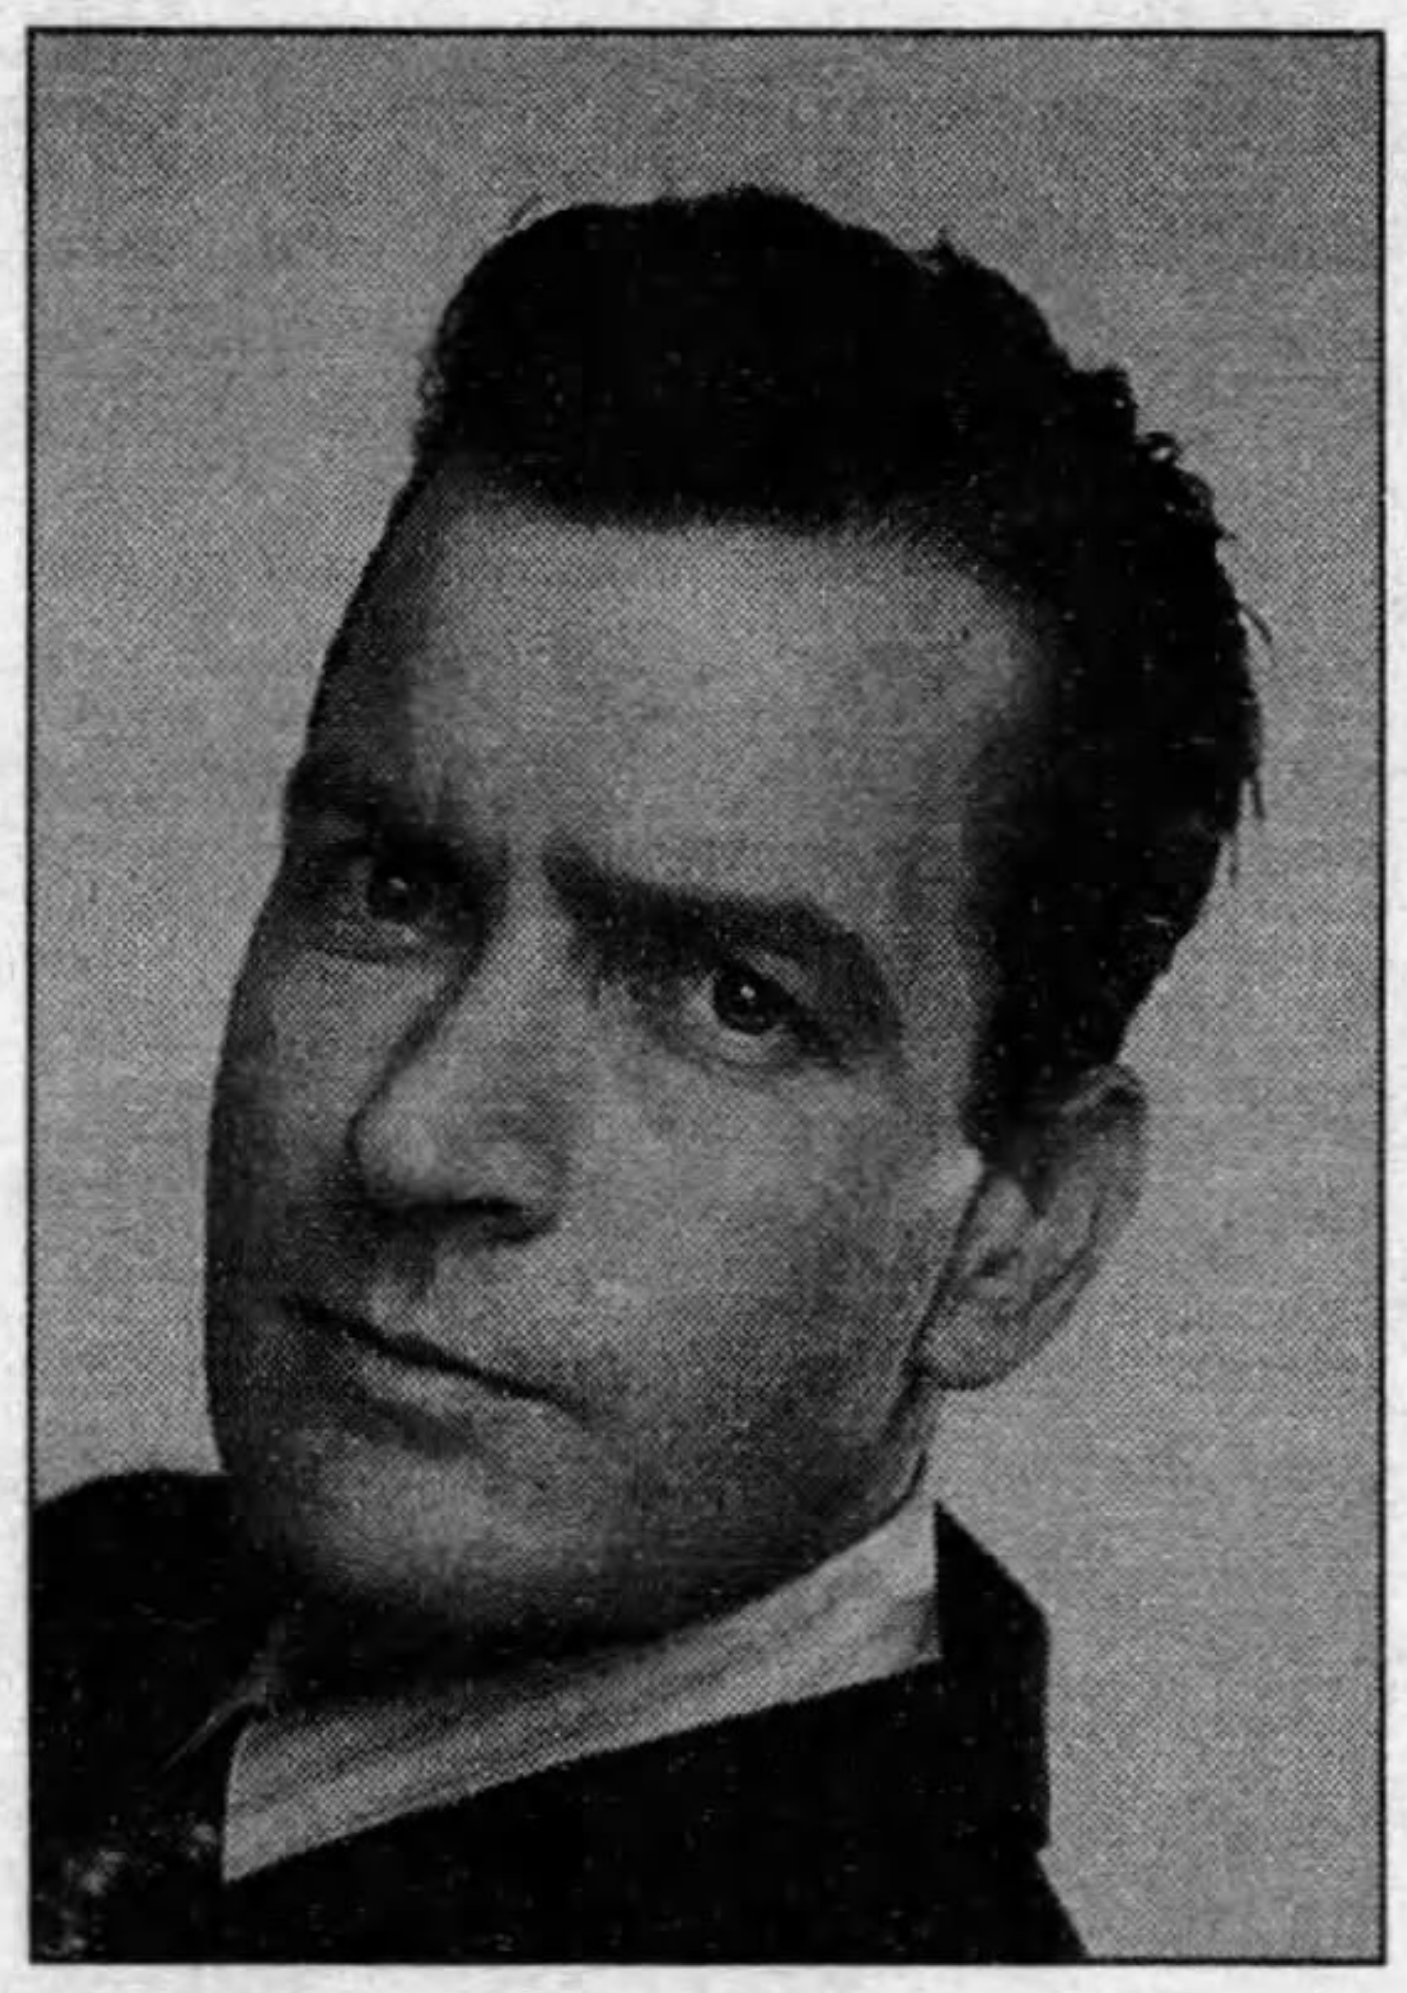
7 p.m. on FOX

The 1947 holiday classic gets a contemporary update, courtesy of writer-producer John Hughes ("Home Alone"). In this 1994 version, Richard Attenborough dons the red suit of Kriss Kringle, a department store Santa who believes he's the real thing and helps a store executive replace her cynicism with Christmas spirit. Mara Wilson and Dylan McDermott also star.

College Football

7:30 p.m. on ESPN

ESPN kicks off a week of college football bowl games on Sunday with Georgia vs. Virginia in the Oahu Bowl from Honolulu. ESPN also has the Motor City Bowl (Cincinnati vs. Marshall) on Wednesday; the Music City (Mississippi vs. Virginia), and Insight.com (Iowa State vs. Pitt) bowls on Thursday; the Liberty, Peach and Holiday bowls (Colorado State vs. Louisville, Georgia Tech vs. Louisiana State, and Oregon vs. Texas, respectively) on Friday; and the Alamo Bowl (Nebraska vs. Northwestern) on Saturday. ESPN2 offers the Galleryfurniture.com Bowl (East Carolina vs. Texas Tech) on Wednesday and the Humanitarian Bowl (Boise State vs. Texas-El Paso) on Thursday. ABC covers the Aloha Bowl (Arizona State vs. Boston College) on Monday, TBS has the Micron PC Bowl (Minnesota vs. North Carolina State) on Thursday, and CBS airs the Sun Bowl (UCLA vs. Wisconsin) on Friday.



Charlie Sheen
WHO WANTS TO BE A MILLIONAIRE

Who Wants to Be a Millionaire

8 p.m. on ABC

Who wants to freshen up a week of reruns? November's popular "Celebrity Edition" of the game show makes an encore appearance with a little something extra: factoid-filled subtitles patterned after VH1's "Pop-Up Video." Celebrity participants, playing for their favorite charities, include Joy Behar ("The View"), Tyra Banks, Sean "Puffy" Combs, Jon Stewart, Vivica A. Fox, Charlie Sheen, Drew Carey, Alec Baldwin and Norm Macdonald.

Movie: Mrs. Santa Claus

8 p.m. on CBS

Angela Lansbury plays the title role in an original musical production featuring a score by Jerry Herman ("Mame"; "Hello, Dolly!"; "La Cage aux Folles"). In December 1910, Mrs. Claus sets out in Santa's (Charles Durning) sleigh to test an efficient new delivery route. But an ill wind over New York forces the sleigh down in a neighborhood of tenements and sweatshops.

O'Donnell may leave daytime

Talk the Talk

By Lorri Antosz Benson

Ho, ho, who wants to go?

The official announcement is yet to be made, but it sure looks as if one talk show host's list of New Year's resolutions will include confirming her intention to end her syndicated show.

There's been a whole lot of innuendo and rumors about Rosie O'Donnell leaving the world of daytime TV.

First there was the article in the "Ladies' Home Journal" last October, where O'Donnell waxed poetic about her interest in adoption. An adoptive mother of four, O'Donnell described how her hobby of helping people adopt has developed into a second career, one she finds "definitely more fulfilling" than doing a successful talk show. She let it drop that she expects to quit when her contract with Warner Brothers expires in 2002.

Her project, Rosie Adoptions, works with a New Jersey nonprofit group that cares for birth mothers and places their babies with families. This has given the talk host the opportunity to assist in more than 39 adoptions, including placing a son with actress Kate Jackson.

As much fun as it is to interview people such as singer Ricky Martin and actor Tom Cruise, O'Donnell told the magazine she's "sick of all the crap that goes with it. ... I get such a rush when I have a baby who's hard to place and I find a family that's overjoyed with the child."

Then there was the on-air dare made by Katie Couric, who challenged O'Donnell to make some news on "Today"." O'Donnell responded by admitting a renewal was not likely to happen.

Although some industry insiders think she's paving the way for a big salary increase, her complaints about the show intruding on her parenting seem very real.

Rosie O'Donnell

Couple all this with her new venture with "McCall's" magazine, and it seems probable that O'Donnell's talk show career will be behind her after 2002.

Is there something in the water at the "Sally Jessy Raphael" show? The production's two top female executives, supervising producer Jamie Schaefer-Wilson and senior producer Jo Anne Germinario, both announced to the staff that they are pregnant.

Monday's Best Bets

Movie: The Brady Bunch Movie

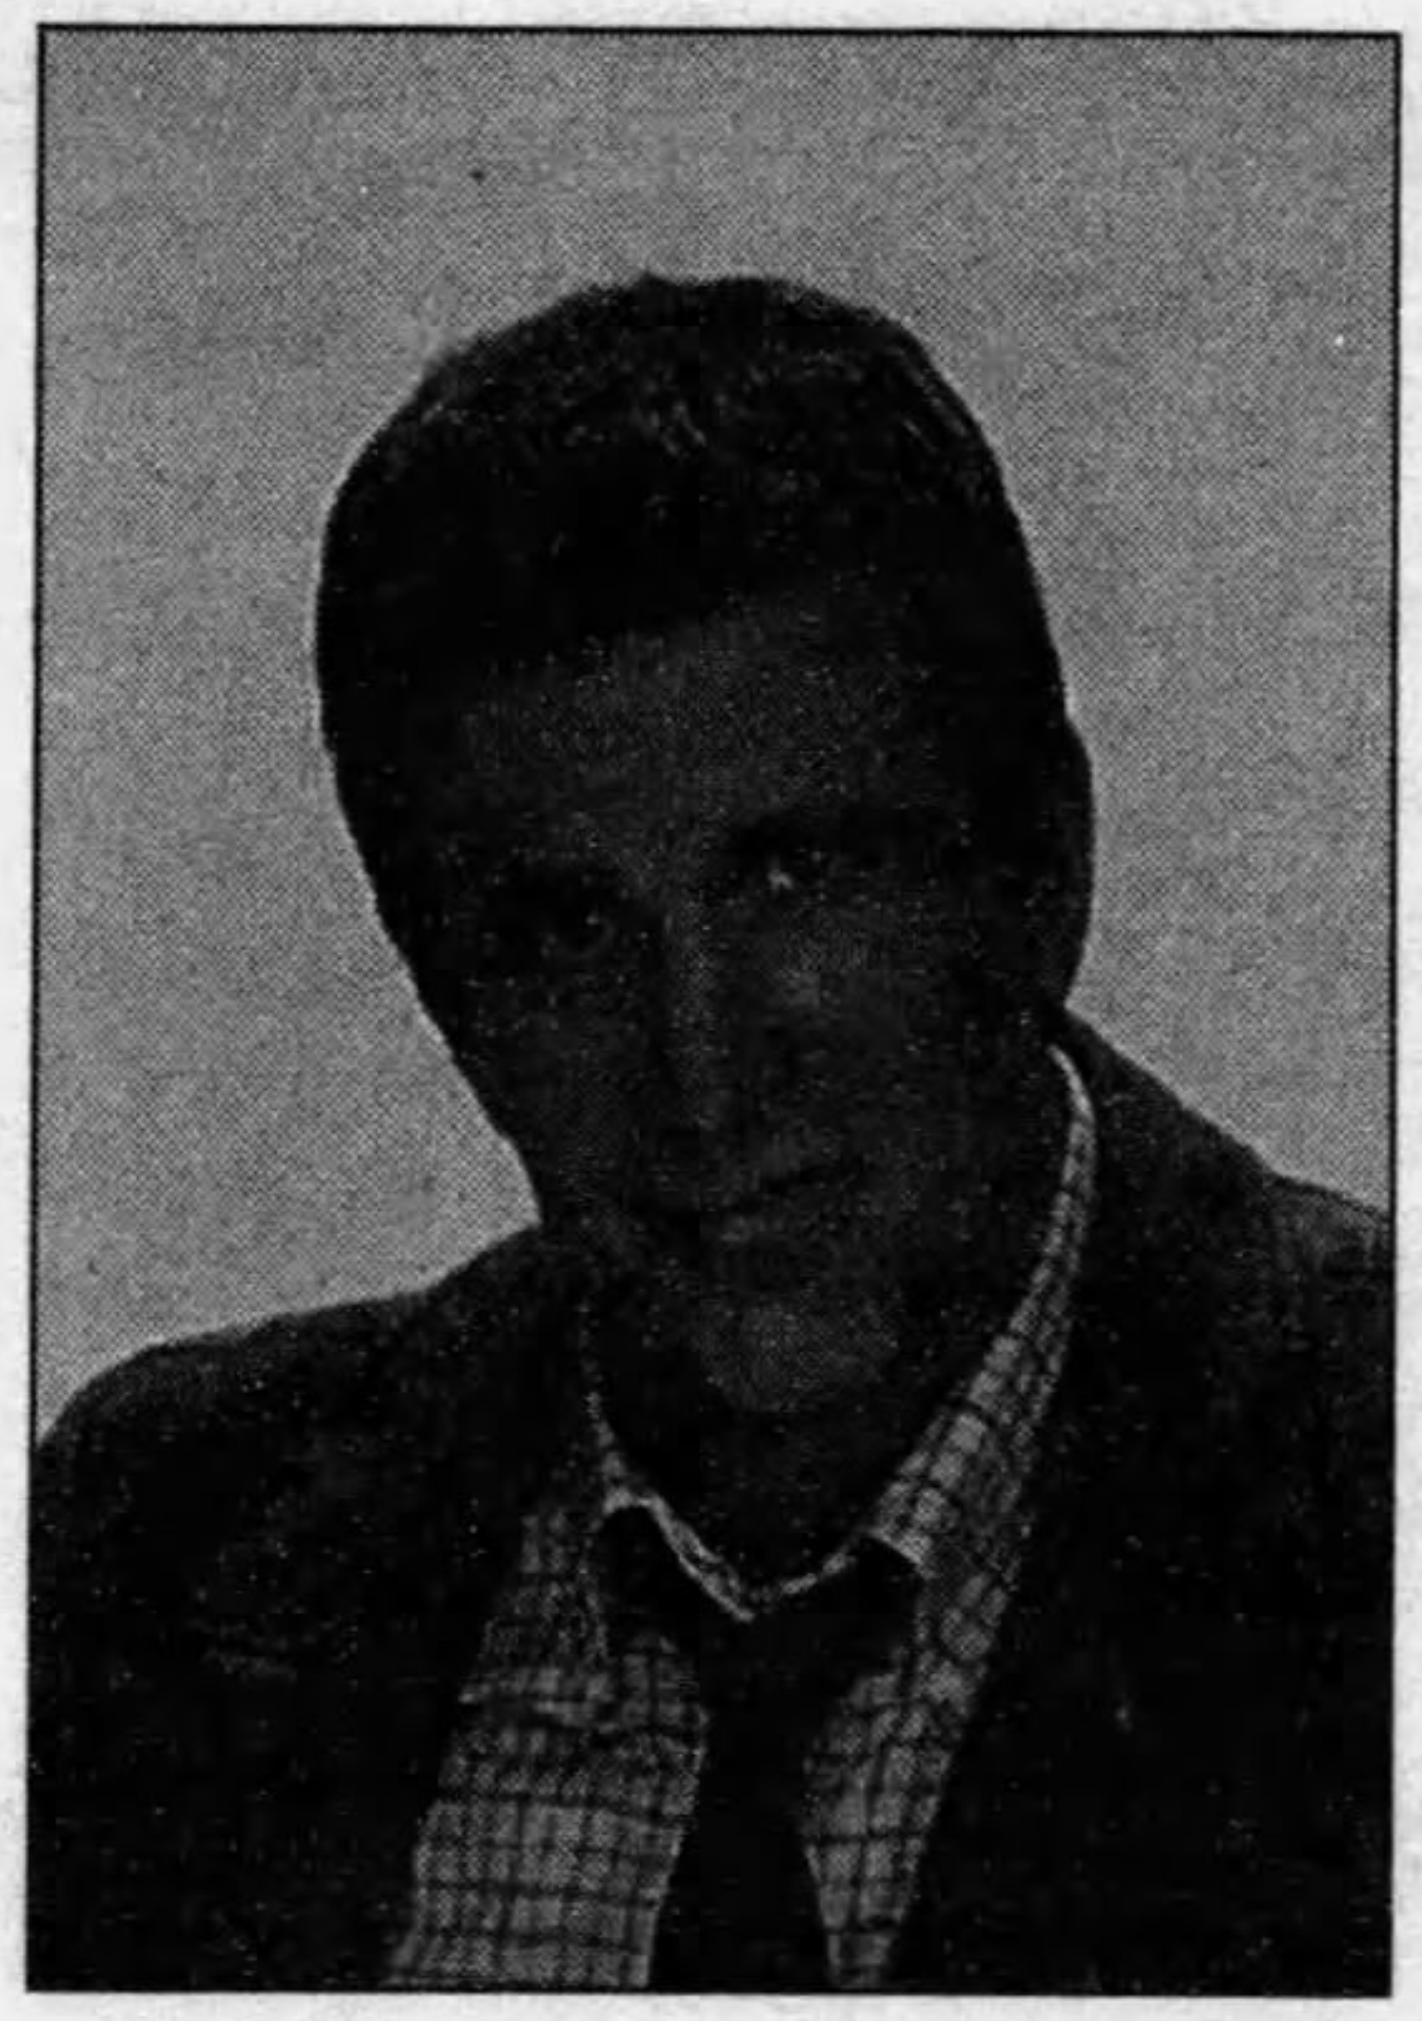
5:30 p.m. on HBO

It's 1995; do you know where the Bradys are? Still stuck in those sunshine days of the 1970s, solving every problem in a half-hour or less with a polyester production number or words of wisdom from Dad. Director Betty Thomas deserves a special Oscar for cleverness for this big-screen satire, which gets its laughs from the Bradys' time-warped cluelessness ("This is a carjack!" "Well, yes, it is a car, but my name's Greg."). The stars are dead-on replicas of the original Bunch; "Cheers" fans will forget all about Diane Chambers when they see Shelley Long's Florence Henderson imitation. Gary Cole ("American Gothic") plays Mike.

Movie: Lassie

7 p.m. on DISN

A city family moves to the Virginia hills and adopts a stray collie, naming her Lassie, after the famous TV and movie canine. Like her namesake, this dog never met a problem she couldn't solve. When young Matt (Thomas Guiry) doesn't adjust well to his new life, and the family falls on hard times, the amazing animal sets out to make things right in this uplifting tale from 1994. Helen Slater and Jon Tenney also star.



Ted Danson
BECKER

Everybody Loves Raymond

7:30 p.m. on CBS

The Barone family celebrates the holiday with back-to-back classic yule episodes. In 1997's "All I Want for Christmas," the gift Raymond (Ray Romano) most desires is a little time for lovin' with wife Debra (Patricia Heaton). Unfortunately, she succumbs to his husbandly charms just as the entire clan crosses their threshold for the traditional family gift-opening and holiday brunch. Then in 1998's "The Toaster," everybody who got a personalized toaster from Ray and Debra for Christmas is crazy about it — except Frank and Marie (Peter Boyle, Doris Roberts), who trade theirs in for a new coffee maker. Ray is shocked by this news but even more floored when he learns what they did to reclaim the rejected gift. Brad Garrett also stars.

Becker

8:30 p.m. on CBS

For Ebenezer Scrooge, it was ghosts. For John Becker (Ted Danson), it's creepy morgue attendants and Kriss Kringle corpses. On Christmas Eve, he's called in to ID the man in the Santa suit who died in his office. No sweat, right? Think again; the place is packed with dead guys in full jolly-old-elf regalia. By the time Becker has found his man, he's gotten some unlikely lessons in Christmas spirit from the morgue gang.

Tuesday's Best Bets

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Roman Polanski: Reflections of Darkness" profiles the Polish-born director whose life reads like a movie script ... or several of them. He lost his mother to the Nazis; his beloved second wife, Sharon Tate, to the Manson gang; and his reputation to an affair with a 13-year-old girl. But as friends, colleagues and a rare interview with Polanski himself reveal, he's come a long way. A stable marriage to actress Emmanuelle Seigner and fatherhood — at age 60! — have helped keep his life on an even keel. Interviewees include Mia Farrow, Catherine Deneuve and Peter Coyote.

Titus

7:30 p.m. on FOX

Ken (Stacy Keach) invites the gang to a surprise party, but here's the surprise: The activity on the agenda is helping Kathy (Mary Lou Rosato) move in. And here's another one: She's throwing Dave (Zack Ward) out. Erin (Cynthia Watros) attempts to play peacemaker, but Kathy has edged her out of the picture, too. David Shatraw and Christopher Titus also star in "The Surprise Party."

Dharma & Greg

8 p.m. on ABC

Greg (Thomas Gibson) joins Dharma (Jenna Elfman) and her free-spirited friends on a road trip to Mexico, but his logical lawyer's mind is soon on a collision course with their go-with-the-flow attitude. Back home, Larry (Alan Rachins) turns Edward's (Mitchell Ryan) company headquarters into his own private jungle-movie set when he becomes the new night security guard. James Avery ("The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air") guest stars in "Love, Honor and Ole!"

Nova

8 p.m. on PBS

Mother Nature takes billions of years to create a diamond, then she makes us dig for it. That's why they're so rare. But that may all change, as "The Diamond Deception" reveals. Scientists are working on a technique for making real diamonds in the lab ... in days, not eons.

The Geena Davis Show

8:30 p.m. on ABC

In "Jealousy," Teddie is floored when Max (Peter Horton) shows no signs of discomfort at running into one of her old flames. But she can't claim the same equilibrium when she learns that friend and baby sitter Abby (Lindsay Frost) once dated Max. Her reaction is to become Abby's best buddy — even if it means consuming strange organic concoctions, twisting herself into a yoga pretzel and planning to attend a Pete Seeger concert.

Wednesday's Best Bets

Bette

7 p.m. on CBS

In-jokes abound in "Pilot," which finds Roy, Rose, Connie and pianist Oscar (Kevin Dunn, Marina Malota, Joanna Gleason, James Dreyfus) trying to shield Bette (Bette Midler) from a devastating piece of Hollywood gossip: The guest role that Danny DeVito has in mind for her in his new series is ... his mother! But apparently she's heard, because she's off on a wild, wild quest to recapture her youth. DeVito guest stars as himself.

Movie: Dragonheart

7 p.m. on FOX

Dragons and the knights who slay them are an endangered species in this 1996 fantasy; in fact, there's only one of each left. Instead of letting fate take its course, they become pals, partners and ultimately allies, teaming up to overthrow a wicked king. Dennis Quaid, Julie Christie and David Thewlis star, with Sean Connery supplying the voice of Draco, the dragon.

Movie: Terms of Endearment

7 p.m. on FAM

Rookie director James L. Brooks scored the big three Academy Awards — best picture, best director and best screenplay — with this 1983 tear-jerker. Shirley MacLaine won the best actress Oscar for her portrayal of Aurora, an uptight widow dealing with a rebellious adult daughter and her own need for love. Jack Nicholson also won an Oscar for his portrayal of a boorish ex-astronaut who — if you can call it that — romances Aurora. Debra Winger, Jeff Daniels, John Lithgow and Danny DeVito also star.

Christa Miller
THE DREW CAREY SHOW

The Drew Carey Show

8 p.m. on ABC

In an encore of the season premiere, Drew (Drew Carey) asks Kate (Christa Miller) what he's been dying to ask her for ages but lacked the guts. And as if that particular emotional roller coaster weren't enough to deal with, he finds his career derailed. Dismissed from his job and haunted by an unfavorable reference from Mimi (Kathy Kinney), the only gig he can get is in the cafeteria of his old high school.

American Justice

8 p.m. on A&E

"Who Killed the Candy Heiress? The Helen Brach Story" reviews the strange case of a wealthy woman who vanished without a trace more than 20 years ago. Helen Vorhees Brach was last seen in 1977 near Minnesota's Mayo Clinic, which had just released her with a clean bill of health after a week of tests. A former lover was convicted in 1995 in connection with her death, but her body has never turned up, fueling speculation that others were involved.

Thursday's Best Bets

Whose Line Is It Anyway?

7 p.m. on ABC

In case you haven't had enough of the improv series this week — a greatest hits show on Tuesday, a special doubleheader on Wednesday — here come two more encore episodes. On "Show No. 229," with Greg Proops as Chocolate Bunny Man in the "Superheroes" segment and a Teutonic spoof of "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire."

Movie: Jumanji

7 p.m. on FOX

Two children (Kirsten Dunst, Bradley Pierce) discover a mysterious board game in their new home's attic. They begin to play, only to discover each roll unleashes terrifying consequences. When a jungle-ravaged man (Robin Williams) pops out of the game, they learn he was trapped in another world during a roll of the dice 20 years earlier. They must finish the game he started to undo all the damage and put things right. Bonnie Hunt and Bebe Neuwirth also star in this 1995 fantasy.

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Charles Lindbergh: Against the Wind" profiles a man who wore many hats in the public eye, few of them of his own choosing. He was hailed as a hero for his history-making flight across the Atlantic in 1927 and became a tragic hero with the kidnapping and murder of his infant son a few years later. But his controversial stand against World War II and his fascist sympathies caused a 180-degree turnaround in the public's attitude toward the one-time idol.

Greg Proops
WHOSE LINE IS IT ANYWAY?

Movie: Second Skin

8 p.m. on HBO

Angus MacFadyen ("Braveheart") stars in this quirky Canadian film noir as Sam, a man with mob ties who tries to escape his past — and avoid the big bad guy (Peter Fonda) — by opening a small-town bookstore. But an accident outside his store brings the aptly named Crystal Ball into his life. She's been hit by a car and has amnesia.

ER

9 p.m. on NBC

In an encore of last season's "Be Patient," Dr. Kovac (Goran Visnjic) has second thoughts about his decision to transport a young hit-and-run victim to the hospital himself instead of waiting for an ambulance. Hathaway (Julianna Margulies) frets over a sexually active 14-year-old's (Cara DeLizia, "So Weird") refusal to tell her parents she has cervical cancer. Abby and Dr. Weaver (Maura Tierney, Laura Innes) clash over Weaver's snap diagnosis of a patient.

Friday's Best Bets

Movie: Beethoven

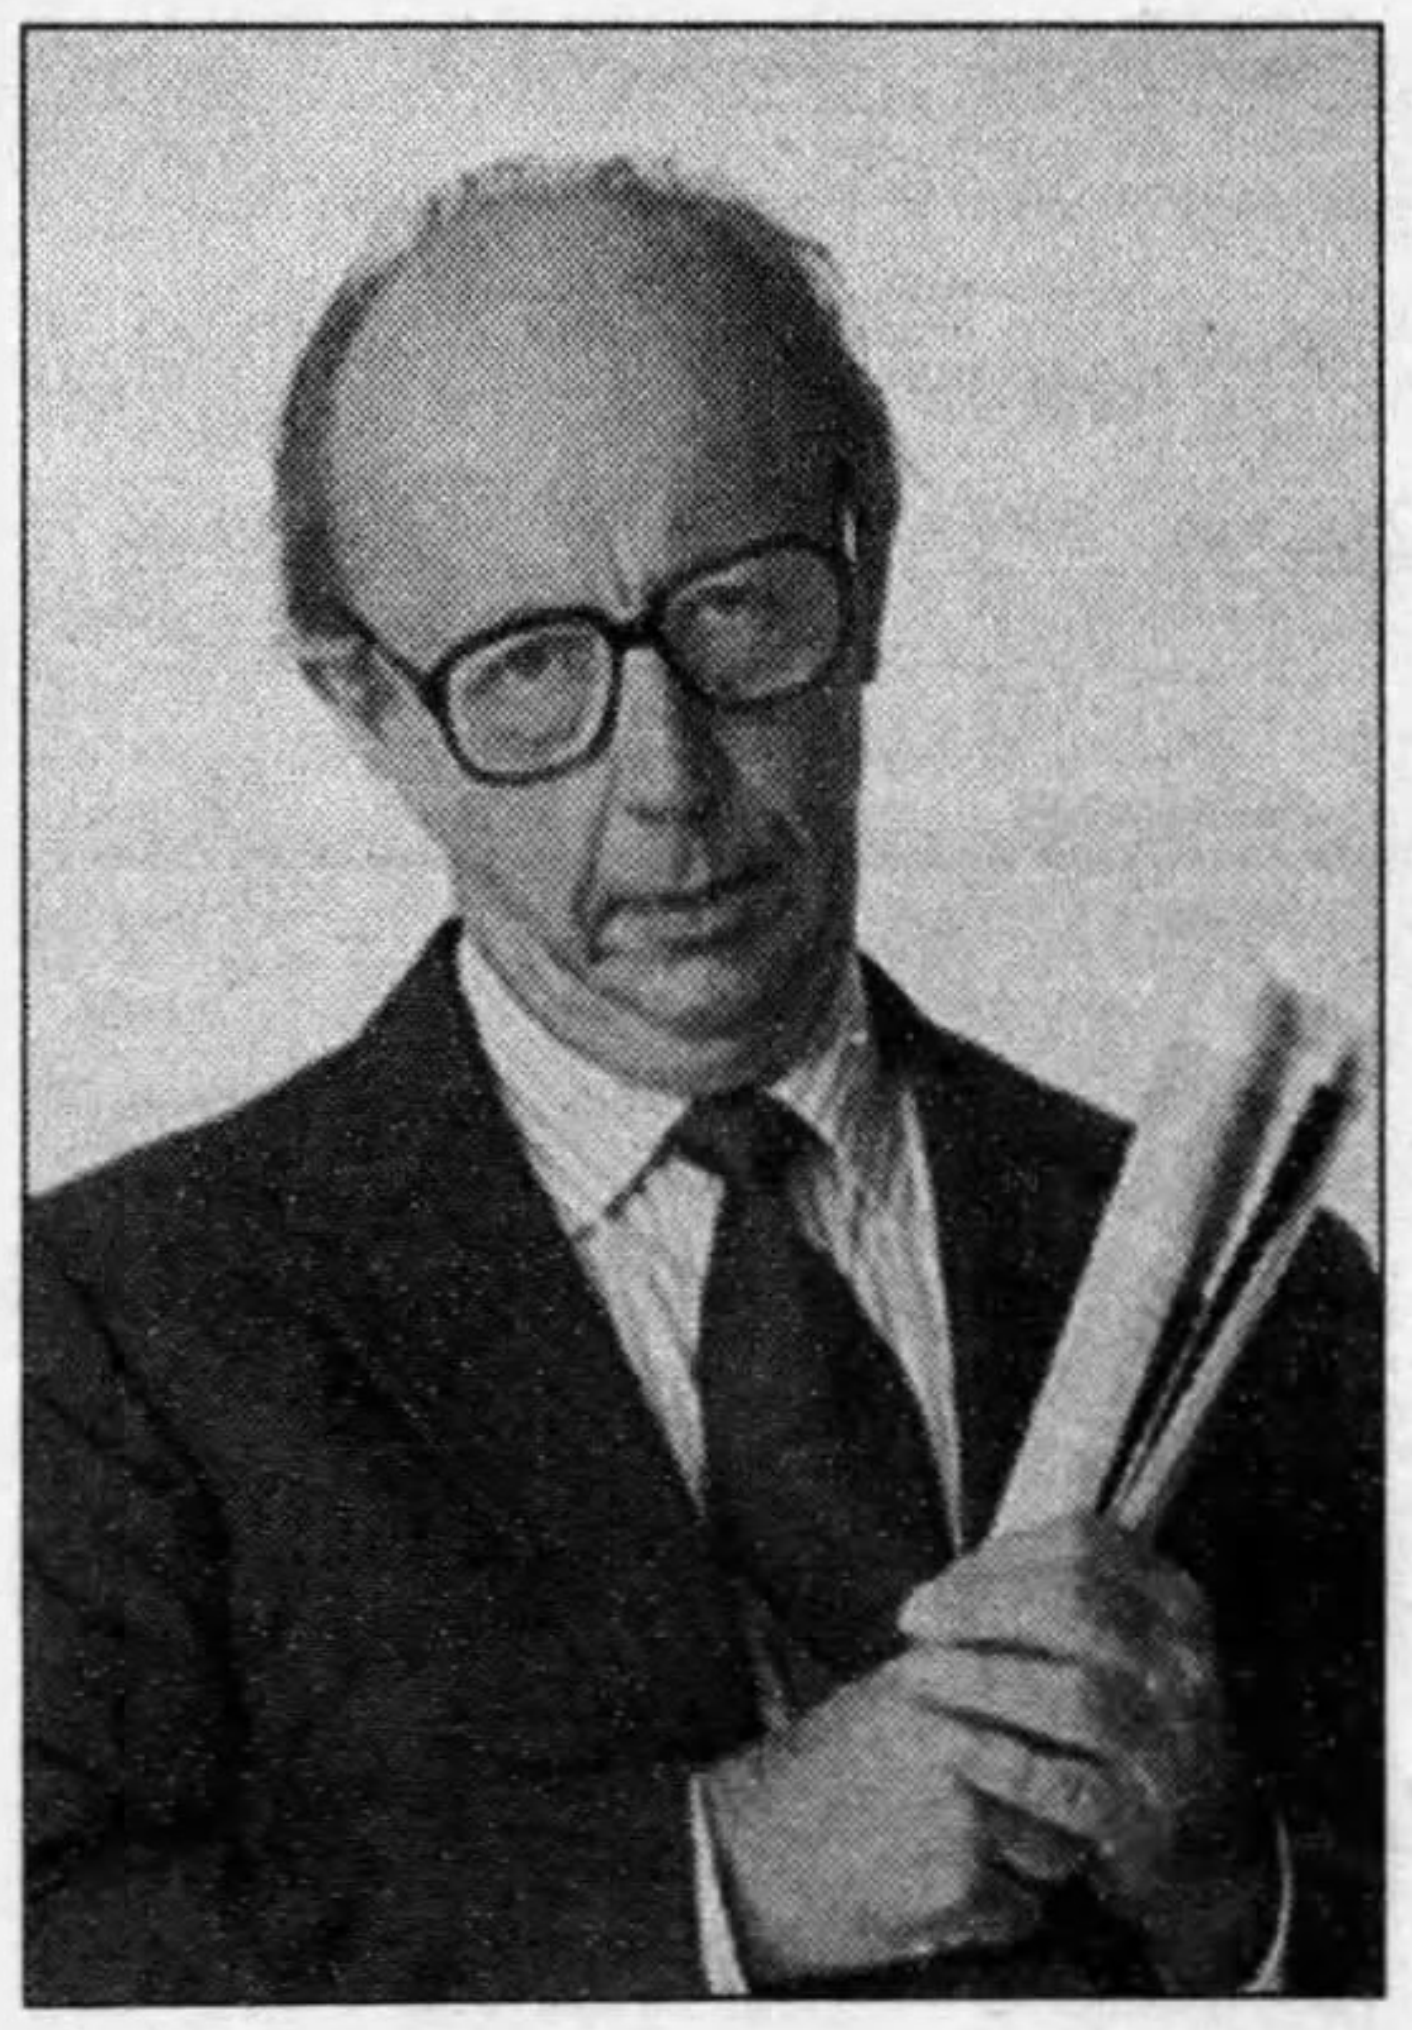
7 p.m. on FOX

Don't veterinarians take that "first, do no harm" oath? An evil vet (Dean Jones) is the villain of this 1992 family comedy, whose star is an enormous Saint Bernard named Beethoven. As a pup, Beethoven escapes the bad doc's dognapping henchmen and lands on the doorstep of a fastidious father of three (Charles Grodin). Big, drooling dogs and Felix Unger clones don't go well together (remember "Turner & Hooch"?), but Beethoven comes in handy, especially as a baby sitter. Eventually, though, those bad guys are back on his tail. Bonnie Hunt, Oliver Platt and Nicholle Tom also star.

Movie: Moonstruck

7 p.m. on TNT

Cher won her first — and so far, only — Oscar for her portrayal of the young Italian-American widow Loretta in this bittersweet 1987 comedy. She's just gotten engaged, but there aren't a lot of sparks in this union. When her fiance (Danny Aiello) is called away on a family emergency, however, she discovers more than mere sparks with his estranged brother (Nicolas Cage). While their story is the heart of the movie, it isn't the film's only romantic entanglement. Loretta's dad (Vincent Gardenia) is having an affair, and her mom (Olympia Dukakis, who also won an Oscar) is thinking about it when she meets a handsome professor (John Mahoney). Anita Gillette also stars.



Max Wright
NORM

Movie: The African Queen

7:15 p.m. on AMC

The top actor and actress on the American Film Institute's greatest stars list — Humphrey Bogart and Katharine Hepburn — made only one film together, and it's a gem. They are pure magic together as crude, boozing steamboat captain Charlie and prim missionary Rose. He offers to ferry her to civilization after her brother is killed at their remote African outpost at the start of World War I. It's prim, peace-loving Rose who makes the unlikely suggestion that they fashion a homemade torpedo and kick some German butt — er, boat — when they get downriver. Bogart won an Oscar for his performance in the 1951 adventure drama, and Hepburn was nominated. Theodore Bikel also stars.

Norm

7:30 p.m. on ABC

In "Norm vs. the Sacrifice," Denby (Max Wright) is having a Rodney Dangerfield moment. But unlike Rodney, who just complains about getting no respect, Denby rises up and demands some — from Norm (Norm Macdonald) in particular — vowing to make his underlings' lives a living you-know-what if they don't shape up.

Santa Claus Is Coming to Town

11 a.m. on FAM

With all the letters that Santa gets for Christmas, it's only fitting that the mailman has all the answers. Here, he relates the story of how Kriss Kringle became the world's greatest toymaker, met and married Mrs. Claus, and melted old man Winter's frozen heart.

Sunday

Movie: Alice in Wonderland

6 p.m. on NBC

It's a match made in Wonderland: the special-effects wizardry of Robert Halmi Sr. and Jr.; the expert puppetry of Jim Henson's Creature Shop; and the surreal whimsy of Lewis Carroll. And let's not forget the perfect matches made in the casting office: Martin Short as the manic Mad Hatter. 'TV-PG'

Monday

Timothy Tweedle

8:15 a.m. on DISN

In this hourlong animated special, Jonathan Taylor Thomas provides the voice of Timothy, the first Christmas elf. When all the toys are stolen from Santa Claus' workshop, Timothy steps in to help. 'TV-Y'

Monday

Movie: The Christmas List

5 p.m. on FAM

Mimi Rogers stars in this very entertaining holiday story of a store clerk named Meloday who learns a valuable lesson about the true meaning of Christmas.

Women's College Basketball

3 p.m. on CBS

The best two teams in women's collegiate basketball — Connecticut and Tennessee — square off in sold-out Hartford Civic Center in what's expected to be the first of three meetings between the titans this season. The Huskies and Vols are scheduled to play in Knoxville, Tenn., on Feb. 1 and barring upsets, they could very well compete in the April 1 national championship game.

Backstory

4:30 p.m. on AMC

In "M*A*S*H," Sally Kellerman, Tom Skerritt, Elliott Gould and other stars reminisce about director Robert Altman's groundbreaking anti-war movie, which earned five Oscar nominations — winning one for writing — and spawned a hit sitcom. The actors allude repeatedly to the freedom that Altman gave them to develop their characters ... a directing style that some of them found hard to accept at first. Altman himself also shares his memories of the movie.

Movie: Jack

7 p.m. on ABC

Robin Williams gives one of his trademark overgrown-kid performances (think Mork) in the title role of this comedy-drama from Francis Ford Coppola. Jack is a child who is aging abnormally fast. Ten years old and looking 40, he decides he's missing too much staying home with a private tutor and enrolls in public school. He's teased at first, but soon his classmates discover the advantages of having a pal who can purchase "Penthouse" and pass as the principal.

That's Life

7 p.m. on CBS

Lydia (Heather Paige Kent) is in the throes of a financial crisis, thanks to a letter from the IRS and assorted other surprise expenses. How will she ever pay Uncle Sam and her tuition, too? Lou (Sonny Marinelli) is no help at all, taking the opportunity to remind Lydia of her long history of messing up. With her self-confidence wearing as thin as her bank account, Lydia is sure she's destined to fail her whole life. Professor Leski (Peter Firth), however, steps in with a perfectly timed lesson in "The Screw-Up." Ellen Burstyn also stars.

Winter Solstice on Ice

8 p.m. on A&E

Skating stars board an icebreaker to perform in Mother Nature's own rink: the Arctic. Spectacular skies and blowing snow provide the backdrop for performances by Brian Boitano, Yuka Sato, Caryn Kadavy and others. Pianist Jim Brickman hosts the two-hour special, taped in Finland.

Crazy college season comes to a close with the bowl games

By John Briggs
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

For the second time in as many months, Florida finds itself the center of controversy in the quest for a national title.

The first time involved the U.S. presidency. This time, it's the college football championship.

Head coach Bobby Bowden's second-ranked Florida State Seminoles, led by quarterback Chris Weinke, will square off against Bob Stoops' top-ranked Oklahoma Sooners and their field general, Josh Heupel, in the Orange Bowl, airing Wednesday, Jan. 3, on ABC. This despite the fact that FSU actually lost to the No. 3 team, the Miami Hurricanes, in head-to-head competition.

It's the biggest challenge yet for the Bowl Championship Series (BCS), which began in 1997. If Florida State wins and Miami defeats cross-state rival Florida in the Sugar Bowl the day before (also on ABC), the Hurricanes will have a legitimate claim to the national title.

Which doesn't even include the possibility that the nation's No. 4 team, the Washington Huskies, also could have a shot at winning it all.

"I saw a scenario where Portland State could claim to be No. 1," jokes ABC play-by-play announcer Brad Nessler, who will be calling the Orange Bowl alongside color commentator Bob Griese and sideline reporter Lynn Swann.

"I guess it was bound to happen," Nessler says, taking the BCS controversy in stride. "It's been kind of a lucky situation so far, but I still think it's better than the way we pick a president."

It's been lucky in the past because the teams that won ended up on top. That hasn't happened this year. The BCS rankings are determined by a number of factors, from the strength of a team's schedule to the total points it scores, which are then filtered through a computer.

"I've seen computer rankings that don't make any sense," Nessler says. "I wonder where they got those numbers. And then there are others where I think they're right on. I think they'll be happy if they just fine-tune it a bit."

In past years, sportswriters and coaches picked the winner, which led to plenty of split decisions and multiple claims of national champions. The only difference here is that a computer makes the call.

Nessler does prefer the BCS system to its predecessor, though he believes it encourages one team to cream another, which "is not exactly in keeping with the college spirit. Coaches don't like to do that to one another." To back that up, he recalls how Penn State may have lost the national title in 1995 to Nebraska because it failed to run up the score against conference opponent Indiana.

One tradition that Nessler will miss is the Big 10-Pac 10 rivalry that defines the Rose Bowl. The "granddaddy of them all" joins the BCS system next year, meaning the game that ABC will carry on Monday, Jan. 1, between Washington and the 16th-ranked Boilermakers of Purdue is the last guaranteed meeting of the heated conference rivalry.

Monday will also see a number of other traditional bowl games, all on ABC. The Fighting Irish of Notre Dame bring their 9-2 record to Tempe, Ariz., where they will face one of this year's big surprises, the Oregon State Beavers in the Fiesta Bowl. The day's coverage begins with the Citrus Bowl, pitting the renewed Auburn Tigers against perennial Big 10 powerhouse the Michigan Wolverines.

TNT 'Pretender' movie set for Jan. 22

Michael T. Weiss
THE PRETENDER

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

I have been patiently (for me, at least) awaiting new word on when we can expect to see the first of TNT's movies based on my favorite series, "The Pretender." Do you have any news? -Ellen K. via e-mail.

Yes. TNT recently announced that Michael T. Weiss, Andrea Parker, Patrick Bauchau and Jon Gries will return for "The Pretender 2001," an original TV movie premiering Jan. 22. Additional information is available at www.tntpretender.com.

Pipeline

Will there be any more crossovers between "Buffy the Vampire Slayer" and "Angel"? I love the chemistry between Sarah Michelle Gellar and David Boreanaz. -Ashleigh in Ohio.

Well, you're headed for heartbreak, Ashleigh, because creator Joss Whedon says he has sent these two title characters on separate life journeys. The episode last season in which Angel mixed it up with Buffy's new squeeze, Riley, was intended to send a clear message that the star-crossed lovers have moved on with their lives.

Can you help me remember the name of the short-lived situation comedy Drew Carey starred in before his current hit show? - "Gruvdigger" via e-mail.

You probably are thinking about "The Good Life," a 1994 NBC flop that ran shortly before "The Drew Carey Show." Carey played Drew Clark, who worked in a warehouse. Fellow stand-up comic John Caponera also starred.

Why was Jessica Biel (Mary) written out of "7th Heaven"? - Rosalyn Thompson via e-mail.

Biel had been lobbying loudly to be let out of her contract on the show, even posing for a sexually provocative magazine spread in an attempt to force executive producer Aaron Spelling's hand. Eventually she earned her limited freedom: She'll be back for occasional appearances.

Movie: Timepiece

8 p.m. on CBS

In this prequel to the 1995 holiday tear-jerker "The Christmas Box," Richard Evans (Richard Thomas) tells his daughter the story behind the antique watch that their old friend Mary has left her as a wedding gift. Flashbacks to the 1940s recall the friendship that Mary and her husband, David (Naomi Watts, Kevin Kilner), forged with Lawrence (James Earl Jones), an elderly black clockmaker, in defiance of the racism of the times. When Lawrence is accused in the murder of a race-baiter, David risks his own life to confess to the killing. Ellen Burstyn also stars in the 1996 drama.

Movie: While You Were Sleeping

8 p.m. on NBC

A Chicago subway employee falls for a man she knows only from afar. Fate intervenes when the man is mugged and she saves him from the subway tracks. He ends up in a coma, and when relatives arrive at the hospital, they assume the two are romantically involved ... an assumption that's going to get in the way when our heroine develops an attraction to her fake fiance's brother.

The X-Files

8 p.m. on FOX

Art imitates life — with lots of dramatic license — in the delightful "Hollywood A.D.," which is destined to become an "X-Files" classic. A movie producer (Wayne Federman) who's an old friend of Skinner's (Mitch Pileggi) researches his upcoming film about FBI agents by accompanying Scully and Mulder (Gillian Anderson, David Duchovny) on their latest investigation. It's a church bombing involving a 1960s radical-turned-deranged forger (Paul Lieber) and a respected cardinal, who turns up in the movie as a character called the Cigarette-Smoking Pontiff. But the real shocker for our heroes is the relationship between the on-screen Mulder and Scully (Garry Shandling and Duchovny's real-life wife, Tea Leoni).

DICK CLARK'S PRIMETIME NEW YEAR'S ROCKIN' EVE

Dick Clark's Primetime New Year's Rockin' Eve

9 p.m. on ABC

Even though it's the true start of the new millennium, somehow the arrival of 2001 just isn't as exciting to most folks as the big Two-Oh-Oh-Oh was. But Dick Clark is going the extra mile this New Year's Eve, hosting two rockin' specials. It starts with this "pregame" show from New York's Times Square, featuring music by Jessica Simpson, *NSYNC, KISS and O-Town — better known as the "Making the Band" band. Next up is the traditional "New Year's Rockin' Eve" with Wayne Brady playing West Coast corre-

Sally is generous to staff, guests

Talk the Talk

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Here are some holiday stories sure to warm your heart as we head into the new year.

Sally Jessy Raphael decided to make the season happier for some unfortunate guests, including a 16-year-old Baltimore girl who has a connective tissue disorder that has severely stunted her growth.

The teen-ager's dream to meet pop singer Mandy Moore did not seem possible.

Raphael made it happen and gave her tickets to a huge concert featuring the likes of Britney Spears.

The "Sally" show also refurnished the home — and offered a toy-shopping spree for the children — of an Arizona family who lost everything in a fire.

An Illinois family with a mother battling breast cancer was given a Christmas to remember, complete with a toy extravaganza and a trip to the Bahamas.

Sounds a bit like Raphael's idea of a perfect Christmas. She and husband Karl Soderlund took daughter Andrea, son-in-law Peter and 4-year-old grandson Max to Hawaii for the holidays.

They rented a house and surprised Max with a ton of Scooby Doo toys that Raphael had been accumulating.

Just goes to show you: Talk shows are not always about fights, family secrets and tabloid topics. And it's not just the spirit of the season or a desire for public relations bonus points that motivates the generosity.

Sally Jessy Raphael

During a commercial break on a recent "Sally" show, audience member Ben Fusco, a Brooklyn resident and owner of a supermarket chain, offered a $50,000 reward that would help an Arizona family find out what happened to its mother and 6-year-old sister. The two disappeared after a trip to a store in 1993. The family, desperately seeking any information, appeared on the episode "Vanished Without a Trace."

Monday's Best Bets

Tournament of Roses Parade

10 a.m. on NBC

You have your choice of networks on which to watch the 112th annual festival of flower-festooned floats, whose theme this year is "Fabric of America." ABC, CBS, NBC, and Home & Garden Television are all offering coverage, but the peacock network has a special connection, since NBC newsman Tom Brokaw is the grand marshal.

La Femme Nikita

10 a.m. on USA

USA thanks the fans whose efforts won this suspense drama a brief reprieve from cancellation with a New Year's Day marathon to prime them for one last season. It starts with the premiere, "Nikita," in which our heroine (Peta Wilson), framed for murder, is saved from execution by a top-secret government agency that trains her as an operative. Next up is the first season's finale, followed by the opening and closing episodes of the next three seasons. Roy Dupuis and Don Francks also star. The new season — sadly, it's only eight episodes long — begins next week.

Great Performances

1:30 p.m. on PBS

Among composers named Strauss, Richard, not Johann, is the man of the year (his "Also Sprach Zarathustra" is better known as the theme from "2001: A Space Odyssey"). But in "From Vienna: The New Year's Concert," Austria's Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra stays true to tradition, offering its annual program of unforgettable waltzes by the other Strauss.

Figure Skating

3 p.m. on NBC

The music of Moby plays a big part in this year's edition of "Brian Boitano's Holiday Spectacular." The techno wizard's music underscores a figure-skating first: a production number starring Boitano, Kristi Yamaguchi and Dorothy Hamill, Olympic gold medalists all. Also slated to skate are Brian Orser, Yuka Sato, Renee Roca, Andrei Khvalko, Gorsha Sur, Vladimir Besedin and Alexei Plishuk.

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

As so many of us make those resolutions to lose weight and get in shape, A&E offers a bit of motivation with profiles of some role models. Shape Up Week starts with "Richard Simmons," the story of a chubby kid who hid his pain behind high energy and high drama. Today, the slim Simmons uses those same trademark traits to motivate others on the journey from fat to fit. Among those weighing in on Simmons during the profile are the man himself, Jackie Zeman and host Jay Leno.

Tuesday's Best Bets

Movie: Rain Man

6:45 p.m. on MAX

Dustin Hoffman reportedly was considered for the Tom Cruise part in this 1988 drama, but he jumped at the role of the autistic Raymond instead, seeing a golden opportunity to flex his acting muscles. It worked. Hoffman won the best actor Oscar, and the film was named best picture.

College Football

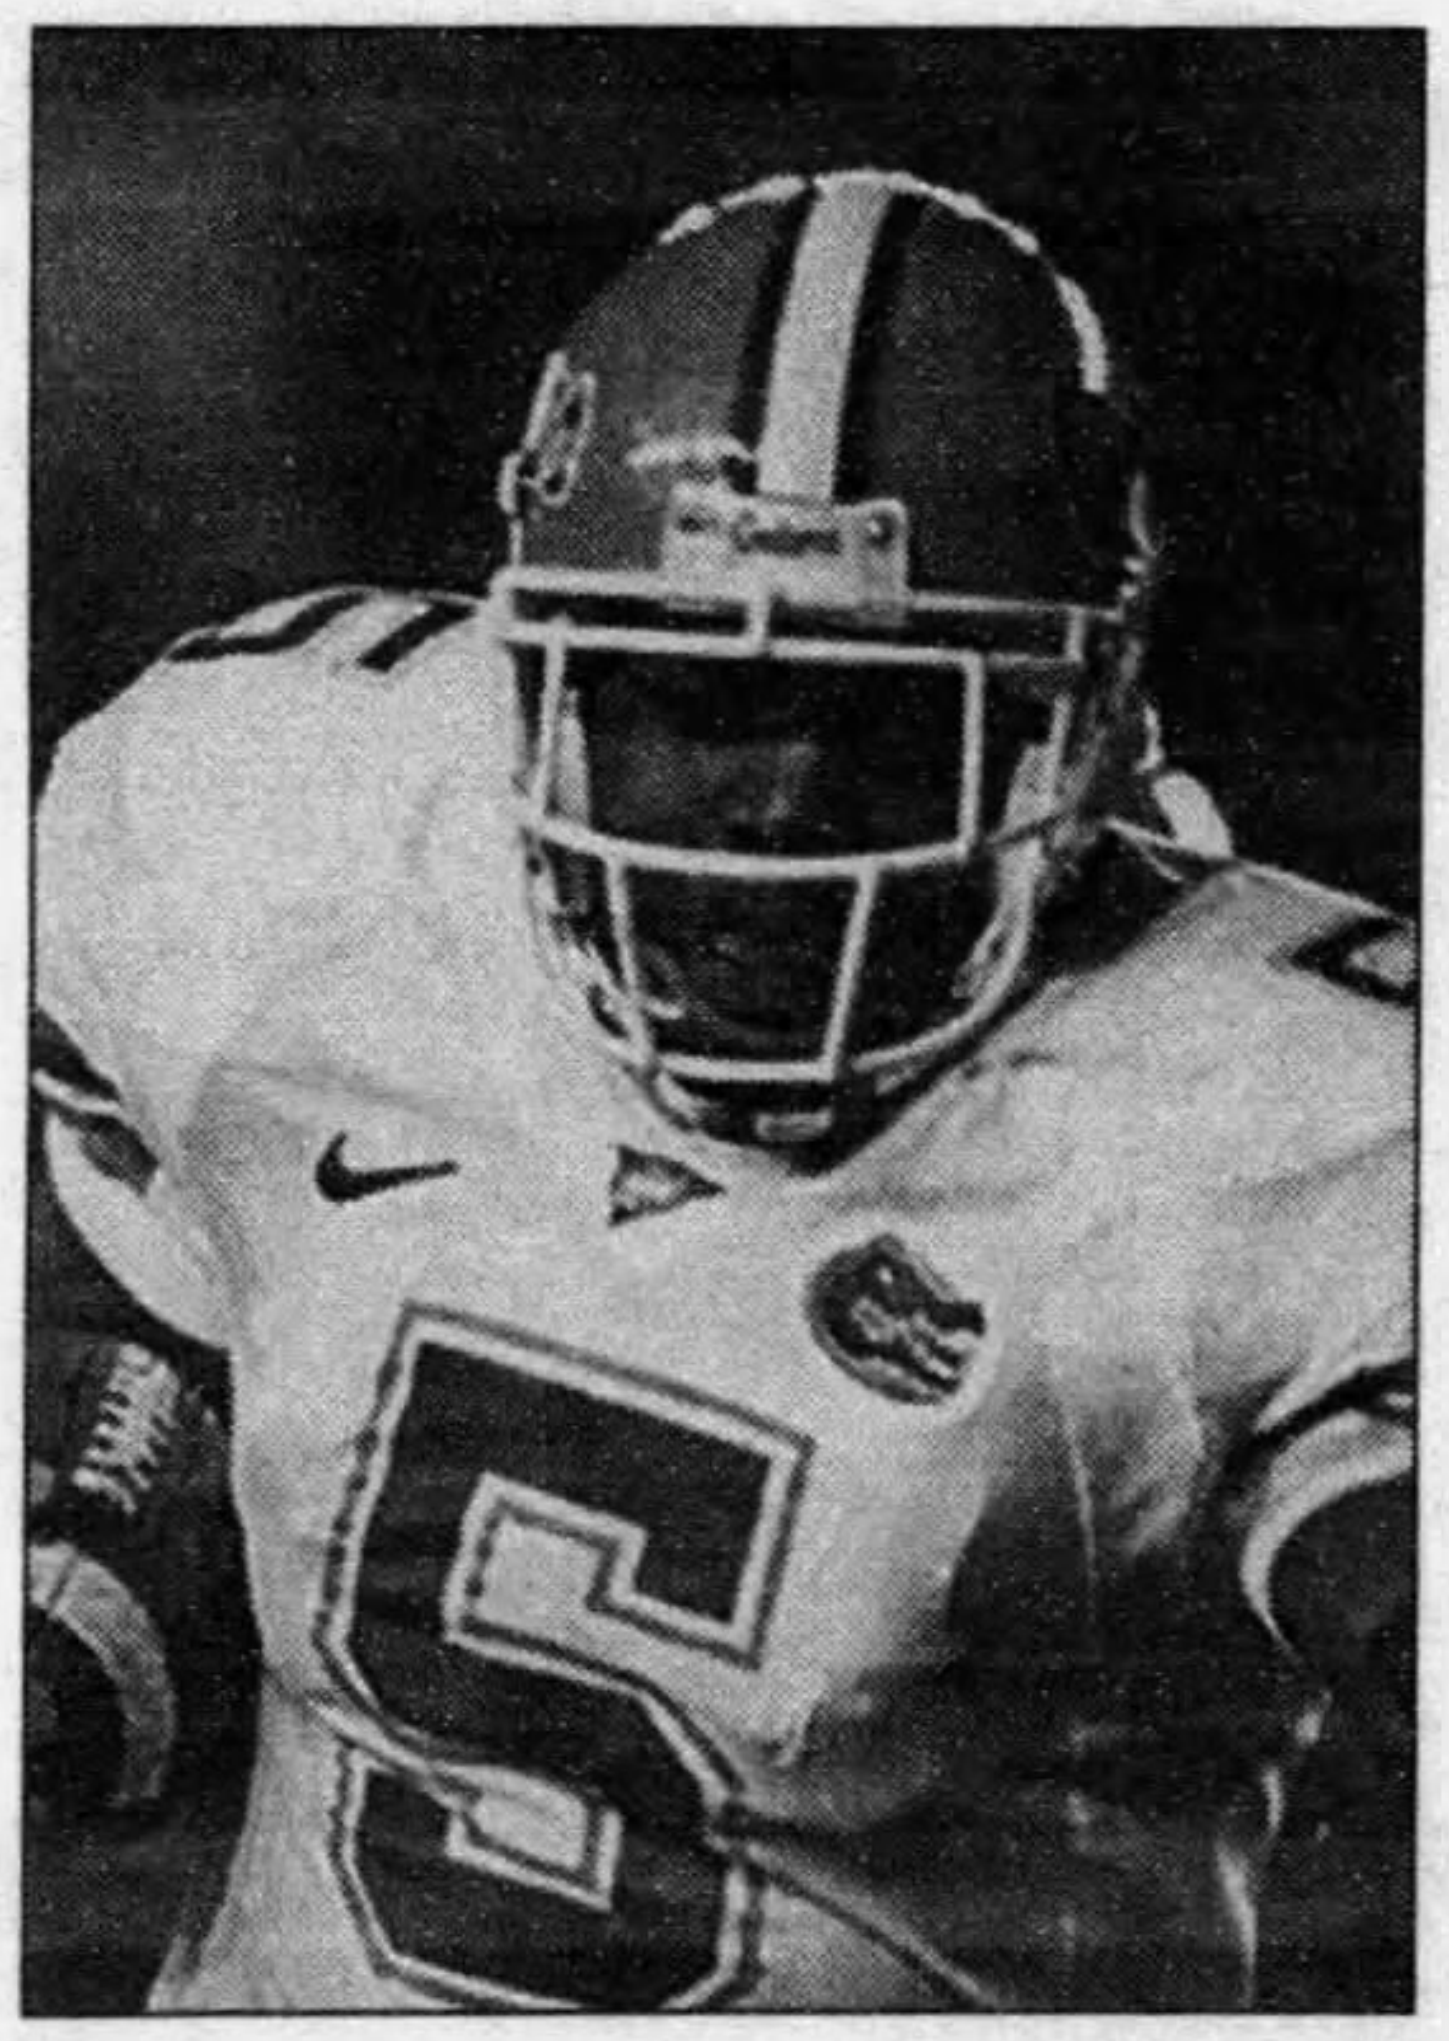
7 p.m. on ABC

Running back Earnest Graham and the Florida Gators are expecting a fight for the Sugar Bowl title. Held in New Orleans, it should be a high-scoring affair, since Miami needs a convincing win over Florida to have any shot at sharing the national championship. That way, AP voters may be inclined to select the Hurricanes as No. 1 if top-ranked Oklahoma loses in the Orange Bowl to Florida State, since Miami already beat FSU back on Oct. 7. One thing is certain: the 'Canes and Gators, meeting for the first time since 1987, will battle tooth and nail for bragging rights in the state of Florida.

JAG

7 p.m. on CBS

Country singer Trisha Yearwood returns as Lt. Cmdr. Teresa Coulter, a friend of Harm's (David James Elliott) who may not be one for long when she finds out he's reopened the case against her father. He was convicted years ago of killing her mother, and she wants to keep it that way. But Harm believes the man didn't get a fair shake in his first trial. Teresa does find a new friend in Mac (Catherine Bell), who also grew up with an abusive father. Patrick Labyorteaux also stars in "Body Talk."



Earnest Graham
COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Movie: High Noon

7 p.m. on AMC

Last year's TV remake with Tom Skerritt wasn't bad, but this version remains the defining "High Noon." Gary Cooper gives an Oscar-winning performance as a Western lawman forced to take on an old nemesis single-handedly when the townspeople turn yellow. Grace Kelly, Lon Chaney Jr., Lloyd Bridges and Ian MacDonald also star in the 1952 film, which also won Oscars for editing, scoring and best song.

Titus

7:30 p.m. on FOX

Frances Fisher steps into the role of Titus' (Christopher Titus) mother in "Locking Up Mom." A competency hearing is being held at the mental hospital to determine whether she's ready to be released. Titus, though, isn't ready, so he makes an appearance at the hearing to argue in favor of keeping her in. But he has second thoughts when his dad (Stacy Keach) shows up.

Wednesday's Best Bets

Bette

7 p.m. on CBS

In "True Story," Bette's (Bette Midler) appearance on the daytime gabfest "The View" feels more like The Yawn. She's just not clicking with the audience until she tells a great inspirational story — starring herself, of course — banking on the fact that nobody will ever know it's false. Guess what. "View" hosts Meredith Vieira, Star Jones, Lisa Ling and Joy Behar guest star as themselves.

Movie: Mrs. Doubtfire

7 p.m. on FOX

As if the sight of Robin Williams in a dress, affecting a Scottish-accented falsetto and trying to walk in high heels, weren't funny enough, this 1993 comedy gives the manic actor a few more outlets — making his character a cartoon voice-over artist, for example. Williams plays a newly single dad who finds a unique way to move back in with his beloved kids: as their new nanny, Mrs. Doubtfire.

Movie: The First Wives Club

8 p.m. on CBS

Three old friends (Goldie Hawn, Diane Keaton, Bette Midler) reunite at the funeral of a fourth friend who committed suicide after her husband left her. The three learn they have something in common: They've all been dumped by their husbands. As their born-again friendship grows, they find the inner strength to rebuild their lives and get even with their exes. Maggie Smith, Dan Hedaya and Sarah Jessica Parker also star in this delightful 1996 comedy.

Law & Order

9 p.m. on NBC

The murder of a white youth in Harlem becomes a political football in "Black, White and Blue." The case appears simple at first; Briscoe and Green (Jerry Orbach, Jesse L. Martin) have two suspects who boasted about doing the deed. But later, McCoy and Carmichael (Sam Waterston, Angie Harmon) uncover a disturbing connection to a pair of police officers (Danny Johnson, James Georgiades). Steven Hill also stars.

Masterpiece Theatre's American Collection

9 p.m. on PBS

Henry James' novel "The American" is the basis for the second installment of the series' salute to classic literature from this side of the pond. Matthew Modine ("Full Metal Jacket") stars as a 19th-century American man who finds love in Paris with the daughter of a French noblewoman (Diana Rigg). His modern ways and her family's Old World values put plenty of obstacles in the road to true love.

Thursday's Best Bets

Friends

7 p.m. on NBC

Hank Azaria ("The Simpsons," "Mad About You") guest stars as Phoebe's (Lisa Kudrow) old boyfriend, whose return to town causes a row between her and Joey (Matt LeBlanc) when she tries to cancel their weekly dinner. Rachel and Chandler (Jennifer Aniston, Matthew Perry) can't keep their hands off the yummy cheesecakes being delivered to a neighbor. Monica (Courteney Cox Arquette) tags along with Ross (David Schwimmer) to their cousin's wedding — just so she can give the bride a piece of her mind for not inviting her — in "The One With All the Cheesecakes."

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Weight Watchers" profiles both the venerable diet program and its founder. Jean Nidetch wasn't a dietitian; she was a hefty housewife from Queens, N.Y., who had tried everything to get control of her weight, from hypnosis to drugs. When she gathered a few friends together to talk about their weight-loss struggles, she discovered the power of group support.

Movie: Bill & Ted's Excellent Adventure

7 p.m. on SHOW

This surreal 1989 comedy wasn't Keanu Reeves' first film, but it's the one that set him on the road to stardom. He plays high-school slacker Ted Logan, who's facing military school if he doesn't quit playing rock-star wannabe with his buddy, Bill (Alex Winter). Just when things look their worst — a major history report is coming due — a mysterious man named Rufus (George Carlin) shows up with a time machine. Our heroes embark on a wild trip through time, collecting such historical figures as Napoleon, Billy the Kid, Sigmund Freud, Joan of Arc and Socrates to literally bring their project to life. Insanity ensues when their new friends are turned loose in the local mall — except Napoleon, who has a not-so-excellent adventure at the local water park.

JUST SHOOT ME

Just Shoot Me

8:30 p.m. on NBC

Forget Cupid's arrow; in "Finch and the Fighter," love packs a punch for Dennis (David Spade) when he romances a beautiful lady boxer (guest star Sami Reed). And we mean that literally; his new sweetie has an ex-girlfriend (guest star Elizabeth Rodriguez) who also knows her way around the ring and isn't too happy about the new relationship. Jack, Nina and Elliott (George Segal, Wendie Malick, Enrico Colantoni) engineer a grudge match of their own — a trivia game — against Maya (Laura San Giacomo), whose smarter-than-thou attitude is getting on their nerves.

Black Scorpion

7 p.m. on SCIFI

Don't be surprised if this new adventure series reminds you of a certain 1960s show about a caped crimefighter in a bat mask. Not only does it have a similar assortment of colorful villains, but two of them are played by Adam West and Frank Gorshin, a k a Batman and the Riddler from that aforementioned camp classic. Former beauty queen Michelle Lintel stars as the title character, who fights crime the old-fashioned way as police officer Darcy Walker when she's not doing it the high-tech way as the mysterious Black Scorpion. The premiere, "Armed and Dangerous," also introduces her chief adversary, the evil Breathtaker (West), whose murder of Darcy's dad was the impetus for her transformation. Scott Valentine ("Family Ties") and Robert Pine ("CHiPs") also star.

Two Guys and a Girl

8 p.m. on ABC

After Johnny (Nathan Fillion) consumes all his and Sharon's (Traylor Howard) savings remodeling a single room of their house, the entire property is consumed — by a mysterious fire. Berg (Ryan Reynolds) makes a startling discovery about his mom (guest star Bo Derek). She's embracing her newly single status with a vengeance, partying like crazy — a trait one doesn't necessarily want to see in one's own mother. Richard Ruccolo also stars in "Burning Down the House."

CSI: Crime Scene Investigation

8 p.m. on CBS

While Holly (Chandra West) fights for her life after being shot, Grissom (William Petersen) calls upon a former colleague, Sara Sidel (Jorja Fox), to help Willows (Marg Helgenberger) look for the shooter. That frees him up to work with Stokes (George Eads) on another mystery: a string of murders involving the winners of big slot-machine jackpots. Paul Guilfoyle and Gary Dourdan also star in "Cool Change."

Saturday's Best Bets

Movie: The Rock

7 p.m. on ABC

A mad general (Ed Harris) seizes control of Alcatraz Island and threatens to fire poison-gas rockets at San Francisco in this 1996 thriller. A British spy (Sean Connery) who's the only man ever to break out of the legendary prison is called upon to help the authorities break in. Nicolas Cage plays a nerdy FBI scientist who assists with the dangerous mission.

Movie: The Devil's Own

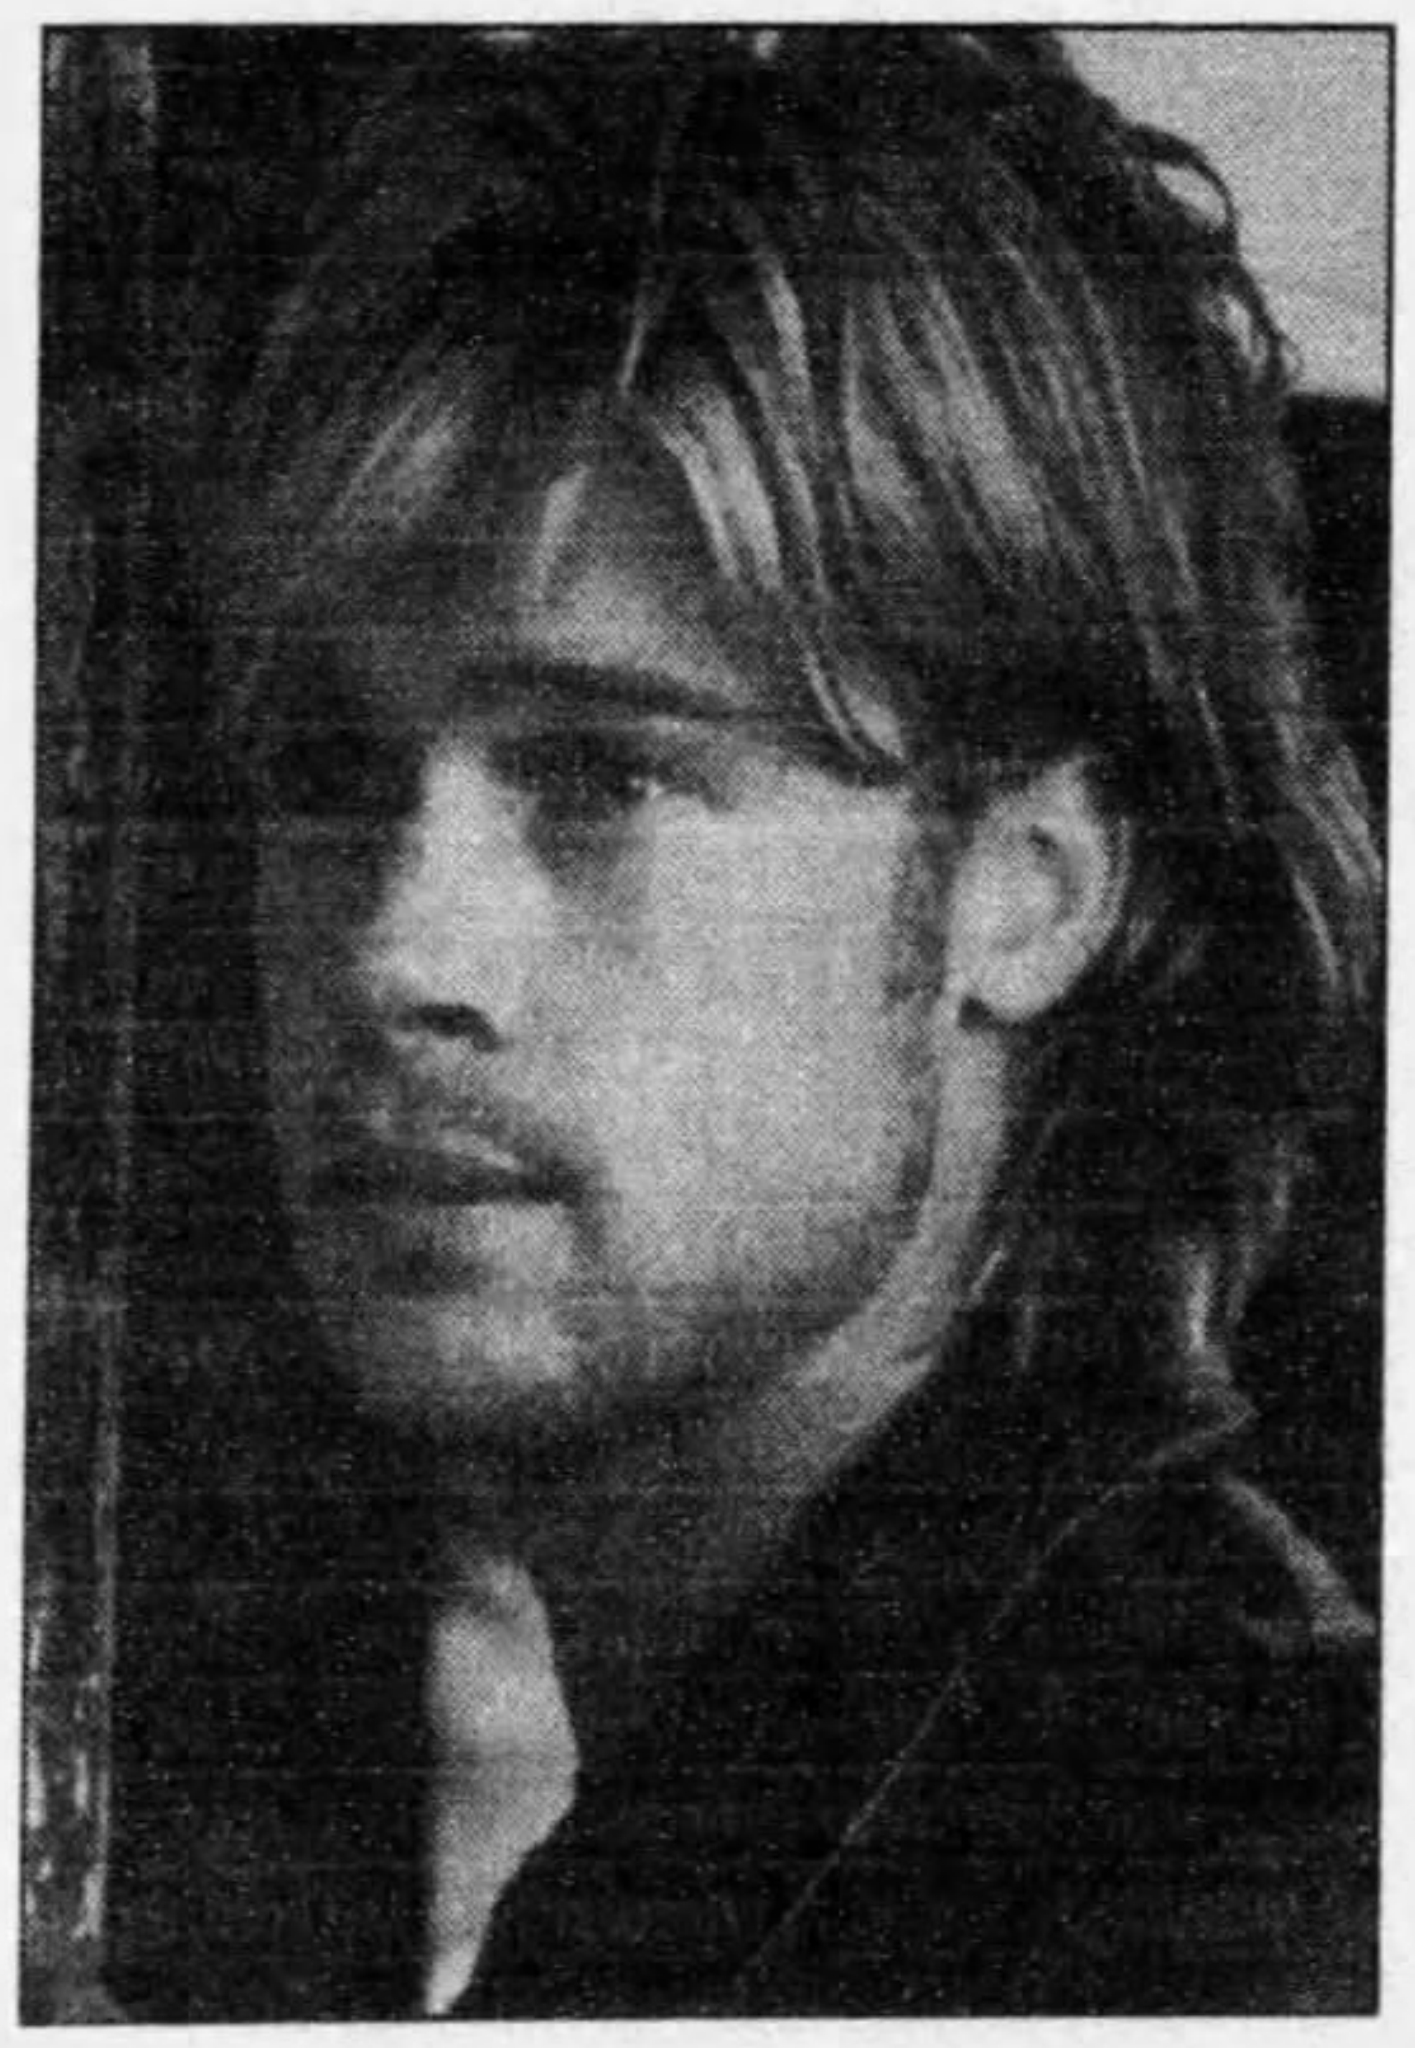
7 p.m. on NBC

Two of Hollywood's hunkiest, Harrison Ford and Brad Pitt, star in this edgy 1997 drama. Ford plays New York policeman Tom O'Meara, a stand-up guy who opens his home to "Rory Devaney" (Pitt) a young construction worker just off the boat from Northern Ireland who needs a place to stay. What Tom doesn't know is that Rory is really Frankie McGuire, an Irish Republican Army terrorist who's in America to buy weapons.

Movie: Promised Land

8 p.m. on A&E

Seeking information on the death of a prison inmate, Morse and Lewis (John Thaw, Kevin Whately) travel Down Under to talk to an old acquaintance. He's an ex-crook who moved to Australia under a new name after testifying against some powerful baddies back home. But their man is missing, his mother-in-law's hospital room has been ransacked, and soon his daughter also disappears.



Brad Pitt
THE DEVIL'S OWN

College Basketball

8 p.m. on ESPN

What better way to ring out the bowl games and welcome in college hoops than with an ACC clash between Wake Forest and North Carolina? The Demon Deacons opened everyone's eyes with a blowout win recently against top-five Kansas, and before that they beat defending champion Michigan on the road. To triumph tonight, they'll need to contain Brendan Haywood. The Tar Heels' big man recorded the first triple-double in UNC's history with 18 points, 14 rebounds and 10 blocks in a December win over Miami.

Movie: Monterey Pop

9 p.m. on AMC

Before there was Woodstock, there was Monterey Pop, the 1967 megafestival of rock, blues and jazz on the other coast. And before there was "Woodstock" the movie, there was this mother of all rockumentaries. While many of the musical acts appearing in the film aren't at their best, several do stand out: Janis Joplin, Jimi Hendrix and Otis Redding, to name a few.
